Dear Attorney General Foster:

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company ("MassMutual") is writing to inform you about an incident involving a potential disclosure of personal information related to five (5) residents of the State of New Hampshire.

MassMutual has a business relationship with Clinical Reference Laboratory, Inc. ("CRL") to perform laboratory services relating to individuals' applications for insurance. On or about September 6, 2013, CRL sent an invoice via the United States Postal Service ("USPS") to MassMutual requesting payment for these services. Upon arrival at MassMutual on September 17, it was noted that the package containing the invoice was damaged and was accompanied by a letter from the USPS stating the package was damaged at a facility in Springfield, Massachusetts while in transit. MassMutual, working with CRL, determined that fifty-four (54) pages were missing from the damaged package. During our collective investigation into this incident and based on discussions with USPS officials, we learned that USPS standard operating procedure requires that when packages are damaged and documents are separated from and cannot be associated with a particular package, such documents are segregated and shredded.

The personal information included individuals' first and last name, date of birth, type of tests performed, and in some cases, either a Social Security number ("SSN") a truncated SSN, or no SSN. Of the five (5) New Hampshire residents impacted, four (4) individuals impacted had a full SSN and one (1) had no SSN.

Based on the particular circumstances of this incident we have no reason to believe any of the personal information involved has been or will be subject to misuse or further disclosure. Nonetheless, MassMutual and CRL are providing notice of this incident to all impacted individuals, regardless of whether they had a full SSN, truncated SSN or no SSN involved. All impacted individuals will also be presented with an offer, at the individual's option, and at no cost, of a subscription to a credit monitoring service for two years. Enclosed, please find copies of the notification to be provided to the impacted individuals, including instructions on how such individuals may enroll in the credit monitoring service.

If you require additional information or details regarding this incident, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (413) 744-1181.

Regards,

Christopher J. Markowski
Assistant Vice President and Counsel

Dear _____,

Clinical Reference Laboratory, Inc. (CRL) performs laboratory services on behalf of Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual). We are writing to inform you about an incident involving a potential disclosure of your personal information.

On or about September 6, 2013, CRL sent an invoice via United States Postal Service (USPS) mail to MassMutual for services performed relating to your recent insurance application with MassMutual. Upon arrival at MassMutual on September 17, 2013, it was noted that the package was damaged and was accompanied by a letter from the USPS stating that the mailing was damaged during processing at the USPS facility in Springfield, Massachusetts and some pages may be missing. We undertook an investigation with MassMutual and were able to determine your personal information was included on one of the pages that were not accounted for during our review. We have determined that your personal information involved in this incident included your name, date of birth, Social Security number and the type of lab test conducted.

During the course of our investigation into this incident and based on discussions with USPS officials, we learned that the USPS standard operating procedure applicable to circumstances such as this when packages are damaged during processing requires that any documents that may become separated from packages and cannot be identified as being associated with a particular package are segregated and shredded.

Based on the particular circumstances of this incident, we have no indication that your information has been or will be subject to misuse or further disclosure. However, in an effort to provide you with additional protection for your personal and credit information, CRL has arranged with Equifax Personal Solutions to provide you with a free two year subscription for Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold with 3-in-1 Monitoring and Credit Report Control if you are interested. A description of this product and enrollment instructions are enclosed. Please note that the promotion code to activate the product, which is valid for sixty (60) days, is located at the top of the enrollment instructions enclosed with this letter.

In addition, we would like to bring to your attention various steps you may want to consider taking to protect yourself against the possibility of identity theft.

You may request a free copy of your credit report at any time by calling any one of the three credit reporting agencies:

Equifax Credit Information Services, Inc.
P.O. Box 740241
Atlanta, Georgia
800-525-6285

Experian
P.O. Box 2001
Allen, TX 75013
888-397-3742

TransUnion
2 Baldwin Place
P.O. Box 1000
Chester, PA 19022

You are entitled to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three credit reporting agencies. When you receive your credit reports, you should review them carefully, looking for accounts that you did not open and for inquiries from creditors that you did not initiate. You may also want to verify the accuracy of personal information, such as home address and Social Security number. If you see anything that you do not understand, you can call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit report, you should contact your local police or sheriff's office and file a police report for identity theft. In these circumstances, you may need copies of the police report to provide to creditors to clear up your records. Even if you do not find signs of fraud on your reports, you may want to check your credit report every three months for the next year. You should closely examine your credit card, debit card, and bank statements immediately after you receive them to determine whether there are any unauthorized transactions and promptly notify any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft to law enforcement, or your state's Attorney General, and/or the Federal Trade Commission.

If at any time you are concerned about identity theft, you can place a fraud alert on your credit file at no cost to you. A fraud alert requires that creditors contact you before opening new accounts. By calling any one of the below credit reporting agencies, you can automatically place a fraud alert with all three reporting agencies for 90 days or seven years by providing them with certain required documentation and order your credit report from all three.

For more information on identity theft, you can contact the following:

Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW,
Washington, DC 20580
www.ftc.gov
877-438-4338

CRL is committed to ensuring the privacy and security of the personal information in its care and is working with MassMutual to identify and implement corrective action to reduce or eliminate the amount of personal information included on invoices on its invoices and other methods of delivery in order to prevent an incident like this from reoccurring.

Any follow-up questions should be directed to CRL at 1-855-758-7543 or disclosurehelp@crlcorp.com. CRL sincerely regrets this unfortunate incident.

Sincerely,

G David Porter
Chief Compliance Officer

Directions for placing a Fraud Alert

A fraud alert is a consumer statement added to your credit report. This statement alerts creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report as well as requests that they contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. Once the fraud alert is added to your credit report, all creditors should contact you prior to establishing any account in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit file, visit: www.fraudalerts.equifax.com or you may contact the Equifax auto fraud line at 1-877-478-7625, and follow the simple prompts. Once the fraud alert has been placed with Equifax, a notification will be sent to the other two credit reporting agencies, Experian and Trans Union, on your behalf.

Dear [insert name]:

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company ("MassMutual") and its subsidiaries understand the importance of protecting the privacy and security of the information about our consumers and customers, and take its obligations to protect such information seriously. We are writing to inform you of an incident that may have compromised the privacy and security of your personal information.

MassMutual has an established business relationship with Clinical Reference Laboratory, Inc. ("CRL"), a company that recently performed laboratory testing in connection with your recent application for life insurance with MassMutual. On September 17, 2013, MassMutual discovered an incident involving a document that was damaged at a United States Postal Service ("USPS") facility while in transit from CRL to MassMutual. The details of this incident are described in the enclosed letter from CRL.

MassMutual and CRL have worked cooperatively to determine the extent of this incident and its impact on our customers. We have determined that your personal information involved in this incident included your name, date of birth, Social Security number and the type of lab test conducted.

While we have no specific indication that any of your personal information has been or will be subject to unauthorized access or use, we would like to proactively provide you with notice of this occurrence so that you may take appropriate steps to protect yourself against the possibility of identity theft.

In order to assist you in taking appropriate steps to protect yourself against the possibility of identity theft, CRL has arranged to offer you an option to enroll in a two year subscription to Equifax Credit Watch™ Gold with 3-in-1 Monitoring and Credit Report Control, at no cost to you if you are interested. The instructions for enrollment are included in the enclosed letter from CRL.

If you have questions regarding this matter, please feel free to contact our customer service center at 1-800-272-2216. The hours of operation are Monday through Friday 8 A.M. to 8 P.M EST.

Sincerely,
