Re: Requirement of New Hampshire N.H. Rev. Stat. §§ 359-C

To Whom It May Concern:

In accordance with state law, I wish to inform you that Experian, one of the nationwide credit reporting agencies, intends to notify one New Hampshire resident about unauthorized access to their personal information. The resident will be notified by US mail this week and will be provided credit monitoring services. A copy of the written notification is enclosed.

If you have any questions concerning this issue, please feel free to contact me at (714) 830-5255.

Sincerely,

This letter is to inform you that your personal information may have been accessed without proper authorization. This unauthorized access took place sometime between 5/6/2012 and 5/7/2012.

Experian, one of the nationwide credit reporting agencies, identified that its client, Coast One Financial, had certain Experian consumer information accessed without proper authorization. The consumer information consists of information typically found in a consumer report. Such information includes your name and address and one or more of the following: Social Security number, date of birth, or account numbers. Experian is actively working with Coast One Financial and law enforcement to investigate this matter. Contact information for Coast One Financial is as follows:

Coast One Financial
17612 Beach Blvd Ste 6
Huntington Beach, CA 92647

Contact: David Yarmy

Experian is providing the following information to help protect you from potential misuse of your information, including identity theft:

We recommend contacting the nationwide credit reporting agencies as soon as possible to:

- Add a security alert statement to your credit file at all three national credit reporting agencies: Equifax, TransUnion and Experian. You only need to contact one of the three agencies listed below; your request will be shared electronically with the other two agencies. This security alert will remain on your credit file for 90 days. Information on security freezes may also be obtained.
- Remove your name from mailing lists of pre-approved offers of credit for approximately six months.
- Receive a free copy of your credit report.

Equifax
