To Whom It May Concern:

We write to inform you of a cybersecurity incident that involved certain personal information associated with approximately five New Hampshire residents.

Gibson Dunn recently became aware of a cybersecurity incident that took place between April and May 2023, involving the unauthorized access by a third party to certain files that included personal information of the said New Hampshire residents. We immediately launched an investigation, engaged leading outside cybersecurity and forensics experts, and notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation. We are cooperating with the FBI's investigation into the unauthorized third party.

The incident was rapidly contained, and we have taken additional steps to help prevent future security incidents. To date, we have not seen any evidence of misuse of the personal information of the New Hampshire residents impacted in the incident.

We are offering a complimentary membership to Experian's® IdentityWorksSM to all impacted New Hampshire residents. This product provides individuals with identity protection and identity-theft resolution services. Additionally, we are providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to protect against identity theft, including information on placing a fraud alert or credit freeze on their credit files, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports, and contact information for the Federal Trade Commission and the three major credit bureaus.

A copy of a representative template that will be used to mail notices to the impacted New Hampshire residents is attached as Exhibit A. The first anticipated date that notices will be mailed to individuals is July 7, 2023.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP

You should remain vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports. When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you did not initiate or do not recognize. Look for information, such as home address and Social Security number, that is not accurate. If you see anything you do not understand, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

You have rights under the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), which governs the collection and use of information about you by consumer reporting agencies. For more information about your rights under the FCRA, please visit www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/pdf-0096-fair-credit-reporting-act.pdf or www.ftc.gov.

Credit Freeze

You have the right to put a security freeze, also known as a credit freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to access your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact all three major consumer reporting agencies listed below.

You must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency. The following information should be included when requesting a credit freeze:

- Full name, with middle initial and any suffixes;
- Social Security number;
- Date of birth (month, day, and year);
- Current address and previous addresses for the past five (5) years;
- Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
- Other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency.

If you request a credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agencies have one (1) business day after receiving your request to place a credit freeze on your credit file report. If you request a lift of the credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agency must lift the freeze within one (1) hour. If you request a credit freeze or lift of a credit freeze by mail, then the credit agency must place or lift the credit freeze no later than three (3) business days after getting your request.

Fraud Alerts

You also have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert lasts one (1) year and is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven (7) years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below. The agency you contact will then contact the other two credit agencies.
