Re: Incident Notification

Dear Attorney General Formella:

We are writing on behalf of our client, Rolf G. Williams, CPA, (“RGW”) (EIN: 20-4202131), to notify you of a security incident involving New Hampshire residents. RGW is located in Shrewsbury, Massachusetts.

On January 3, 2022, RGW identified a security incident that involved certain systems within its network. Upon learning of this incident, RGW immediately began an investigation, and measures were taken to address the incident and restore operations. Through the investigation, RGW determined that an unauthorized person accessed and acquired files from RGW’s systems. RGW reviewed the files involved in the incident, and on January 17, 2022, determined that the files contained the name and one or more of: Social Security number, driver’s license number and/or financial account number of nine New Hampshire residents.

On February 14, 2022, RGW will begin mailing notification letters to the New Hampshire residents via First Class U.S. Mail pursuant to N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 359-C:20. A sample copy of the notification letter is enclosed. RGW is offering the New Hampshire residents whose Social Security number was involved a complimentary, one-year membership to credit monitoring, fraud consultation, and identity theft restoration services through Kroll. A dedicated, toll-free call center has also been established that individuals may call with related questions.

To help protect against an incident like this from happening in the future, RGW continues to review its policies and procedures, and is implementing enhancements to its cybersecurity posture.

Dear <<first_name>> <<middle_name>> <<last_name>> <<suffix>>,

At Rolf G. Williams, CPA, we understand the importance of protecting the information that we maintain. We are writing to inform you that we recently identified and addressed an incident that involved some of your information. This notice explains the incident, measures we have taken, and some steps you may consider taking in response.

On January 3, 2022 we identified a security incident that involved certain systems within our computer network. We immediately began an investigation, took measures to contain the incident, and notified law enforcement. Through our investigation, we determined that an unauthorized person accessed our network and acquired certain files from our servers. We then conducted a review of those files, and on January 17, 2022, determined that they contained your information, including your <<b2b_text_1(name, data elements)>>.

We are notifying you because we want to assure you that we take this incident very seriously. As an added precaution, we are offering you a complimentary 12 month membership to identity monitoring services through Kroll. Your identity monitoring services include Credit Monitoring, Fraud Consultation, and Identity Theft Restoration Services.

Visit <https://enroll.krollmonitoring.com> to activate and take advantage of your identity monitoring services.

You have until <<b2b_text_6(activation deadline)>> to activate your identity monitoring services.

Please have your membership number located in your letter ready when calling. Please note that to activate monitoring services, you will be required to provide your name, date of birth, and Social Security number through our automated phone system.

For additional steps you can take in response to the incident, please see the information provided in the pages following this letter. We remind you to remain vigilant to the possibility of fraud by reviewing your financial statement for any unauthorized activity. You should immediately report any unauthorized activity to your financial institution.

Your confidence and trust are important to us and we regret any inconvenience this incident may cause you. To help prevent an incident like this from happening in the future, we reset employee passwords, increased monitoring of network activity, are educating employees on how to identify and avoid malicious emails and links, and are actively reviewing potential enhancements to our existing security measures. If you have any questions, please call (855) 568-2059, Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Eastern Time, excluding some U.S. holidays. Please have your membership number ready .

Sincerely,

Rolf G. Williams

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF YOUR IDENTITY MONITORING SERVICES

You have been provided with access to the following services from Kroll:

Triple Bureau Credit Monitoring

You will receive alerts when there are changes to your credit data at any of the three national credit bureaus—for instance, when a new line of credit is applied for in your name. If you do not recognize the activity, you'll have the option to call a Kroll fraud specialist, who will be able to help you determine if it is an indicator of identity theft.

Fraud Consultation

You have unlimited access to consultation with a Kroll fraud specialist. Support includes showing you the most effective ways to protect your identity, explaining your rights and protections under the law, assistance with fraud alerts, and interpreting how personal information is accessed and used, including investigating suspicious activity that could be tied to an identity theft event.

Identity Theft Restoration

If you become a victim of identity theft, an experienced Kroll licensed investigator will work on your behalf to resolve related issues. You will have access to a dedicated investigator who understands your issues and can do most of the work for you. Your investigator will be able to dig deep to uncover the scope of the identity theft, and then work to resolve it.

Kroll's activation website is only compatible with the current version or one version earlier of Chrome, Firefox, Safari and Edge.

To receive credit services, you must be over the age of 18 and have established credit in the U.S., have a Social Security number in your name, and have a U.S. residential address associated with your credit file.

ADDITIONAL STEPS YOU CAN TAKE

We remind you it is always advisable to be vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by reviewing your account statements and free credit reports for any unauthorized activity. You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. To order your annual free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228. Contact information for the three nationwide credit reporting companies is as follows:

- Equifax, PO Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374, www.equifax.com, 1-800-685-1111
- Experian, PO Box 2002, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com, 1-888-397-3742
- TransUnion, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com, 1-800-916-8800

If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your state. You can obtain information from these sources about steps an individual can take to avoid identity theft as well as information about fraud alerts and security freezes. You should also contact your local law enforcement authorities and file a police report. Obtain a copy of the police report in case you are asked to provide copies to creditors to correct your records. Contact information for the Federal Trade Commission is as follows:

- Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft

Fraud Alerts and Credit or Security Freezes:

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That's because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they can't see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

You'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.

You can contact Rolf G. Williams at 508-842-0604 or by mail at 3 Hemlock Circle, Shrewsbury, MA 01545.
