

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION BUREAU ATTORNEY OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Environmental Protection Bureau enforces laws to safeguard human health, the environment, and the economy; renders advice to relevant executive agencies, boards, and commissions; appears as Counsel for the Public before the Site Evaluation Committee on significant energy matters; and prosecutes polluters and offenders. Its work includes advocacy before state and federal courts and administrative bodies. It strives to preserve New Hampshire's natural resources—a key component of the state's tourist industry—for the benefit of New Hampshire residents, visitors, and future generations.

The ideal candidate is a member of the New Hampshire Bar with substantial trial and appellate court experience in both routine and complex civil disputes—including tort cases—and the ability to provide sound legal counsel to executive branch decision-makers. Excellent analytical and writing skills, as well as genuine commitment to achieve just and timely results in cases at the intersection of science, nature, and responsible development, are essential.

Interested candidates should send cover letter and CV to Sean P. Gill, Esq., Chief of Staff, New Hampshire Department of Justice at: employment@doj.nh.gov or by mail to New Hampshire Department of Justice, 33 Capitol Street, Concord, NH 03301.

The Office of the Attorney General is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, age, sexual orientation, handicapping condition, and/or disability.

For more information about the New Hampshire Department of Justice, please visit our website: www.doj.nh.gov.