If all the Trustees entitled to vote and then holding office severally or collectively consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by CMC, then such action shall be valid as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Board of Trustees. Email or other electronic transmissions intended to constitute the consent and signature of the sender and otherwise complying with NHRSA § 294-E will constitute a writing for the purpose of this Section 9. The Secretary shall file such consent with the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Trustees and shall have the same effect as a vote of the Board for all purposes.

At least annually, each Trustee will be advised of this policy and shall sign a statement acknowledging an understanding of an agreement to the Conflict of Interest Policy as set forth in this Article X. The Board of Trustees will comply with all requirements of New Hampshire law, including NHRSA § 7:19-a, concerning conflicts of interest related to non-profit entities and such New Hampshire requirements are incorporated into and made a part of this Article X. For the purposes of these By-Laws, a "Disinterested Trustee" is a Trustee who does not have a financial interest in the transaction under consideration and has not been involved in a different transaction subject to this Article within the same fiscal year. Under no circumstances is CMC to make any loans of money or property to any Trustees or officers of CMC. CMC shall not sell, lease for a term of greater than five (5) years, purchase or convey any real estate or interest in real estate to or from a Trustee or officer without the prior approval of the probate court after a finding that the sale or lease is fair to CMC.

Section 2. Transactions with Former Trustees or Officers. Transactions between former trustees or officers of CMC and CMC or its affiliated entities are prohibited for two (2) consecutive years after the end of the former trustee or officer's term, unless the Board of Trustees voluntarily go through the Conflict of Interest process set forth in Section 1 of this Article X and compliance with the standards of NHRSA § 7:19-a.

ARTICLE XI

ARTICLE XII

SELF-EVALUATION

The Board of Trustees shall conduct a self-evaluation at least once every two (2) years. The evaluation shall give each member of the Board an opportunity to express his or her individual judgment as to the performance of the Board in its principal responsibilities during the preceding year. Members of the Board of Trustees who are within the first year of their term shall not be required to participate in the self-evaluation.

ARTICLE XIII

WAIVER OF NOTICE

Whenever any notice is required to be given to the Members or any Trustee by these Bylaws or the Articles of Agreement or the laws of the State of New Hampshire, a waiver of the notice in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to the notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to giving the notice.

ARTICLE XIV

AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

The power to alter, amend or repeal these Bylaws or to adopt new Bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Trustees, who may make any such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote at any meeting or special meeting of the Board of Trustees called for such purpose, provided that notice of the proposed change is given in the notice of the meeting, and that such change shall be subject to the approval of the Members and the Bishop, where applicable. The Board of Trustees shall review these Bylaws at least annually.

ARTICLE XV

LIMITED LIABILITY TO CMC

Each Trustee and officer shall be indemnified by CMC against personal liability to CMC for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a trustee or officer, or both, except with respect to: (1) any breach of the trustee's or officer's duty of loyalty to CMC; (2) acts or omissions which are not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; or (3) any transaction from which the trustee or officer derived any improper personal benefit.

ARTICLE XVI

INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY CLAIMS

Section 1. Indemnification. CMC shall to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law, indemnify its Trustees, officers, and committee members and their respective heirs, administrators and executors (the "Indemnitee"), against any and all third party claims, suits, proceedings, judgments and assessments ("Proceeding"), and reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees (the "Expenses"), incurred or imposed upon them in connection with any third party Proceeding to which they may be a party or with which they shall be threatened by reason of their being or having been a Trustee, officer or committee member of CMC. The Indemnitee shall have the obligation and burden to provide CMC and its insurer timely notice of any Proceeding or potential Proceeding that could implicate the indemnification obligations of this Article XVI and such information as is reasonably necessary for CMC and insurer to assess such Proceeding or potential Proceeding. CMC shall have the right, but not the duty, to assume the defense of the Indemnitee in any such Proceeding. In the event that CMC does not assume the defense, CMC's liability for indemnification in the event of a proposed settlement shall be conditioned upon CMC's written approval of the settlement. The right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the Indemnitee may otherwise be entitled as a matter of law. CMC's obligation to indemnify the Indemnitee shall be reduced to the extent that the Indemnitee has otherwise received payment (under any insurance policy, other contractual indemnity clause, bylaw, agreement, resolution or otherwise). The right of indemnification shall not cover those matters which are the result of: (1) any breach of the Trustee's, officer's or committee member's duty of loyalty to CMC; (2) acts or omissions which are not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; or (3) any transaction from which the trustee, officer or committee member derived any improper personal benefit.

Section 2. Advancement of Expenses. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Article XVI, CMC may advance the Expenses, incurred by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in connection with any Proceedings, by reason of their being or having been a Trustee, officer or committee member of CMC within sixty (60) days after the receipt by CMC of a statement or statements from the Indemnitee requesting such advance or advances from time to time, whether prior to or after final disposition of the Proceeding. Such statement or statements shall be supported by reasonable documentary evidence of the Expenses incurred by the Indemnitee and shall include or be preceded by a written statement by or on behalf the Indemnitee that the Indemnitee has a good faith belief that the standard of conduct permitting indemnification has been met or that the Proceeding involves conduct for which indemnification would be permissible by New Hampshire law or these Bylaws. In addition, such written statement furnished by the Indemnitee shall include a commitment to repay any of the Expenses advanced if it is ultimately determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified against the Expenses. Any advances and undertakings to repay pursuant to this Section 2 shall be unsecured and interest free. CMC's obligation to advance the Expenses to the Indemnitee shall be reduced to the extent that the Indemnitee has otherwise received payment or payment has been made to or for the Indemnitee's benefit (under any insurance policy, other contractual indemnity clause, bylaw, agreement, resolution or otherwise).

Section 3. Insurance. CMC shall have the authority to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is a Trustee, officer and committee member and to indemnify CMC for any obligation which CMC occurs as a result of its indemnification of its Trustees, officers, and committee members and their respective heirs, administrators and executors pursuant to this Article XVI.

ARTICLE XVII

These Bylaws shall at all times be so construed and limited as to enable CMC to qualify and to continue qualifying as a voluntary corporation incorporated and existing under New Hampshire law and as a recognized Section 501(c)(3) tax-exempt charitable organization organized and operated for any purpose for which an organization may be exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. No part of the net earnings of CMC shall inure to the personal benefit of any Trustee, individual or entity. In the event of the complete termination or complete dissolution of CMC, in any manlier or for any reason whatsoever, its remaining assets, if any, shall be disposed of as set forth in CMC's Articles of Agreement.

Auxiliary or voluntary groups may be established for the purpose of: (a) raising funds for CMC; (b) volunteering services in, or on behalf of, CMC; and (c) otherwise promoting the comfort and welfare of CMC's patients. Each auxiliary or voluntary group shall furnish a written annual report of its activities to the Board of Trustees at the close of CMC's fiscal year.
