Re: Notice of a Data Security Incident

CONSUMER PROTECTION

To the Office of the Attorney General:

Alvaria, Inc. ("Alvaria" or "the Company") is a workforce management and call center technology solution company. We write to inform you that notice is being sent to one (1) New Hampshire resident regarding a data incident in which Alvaria was the victim of a cyberattack that could have resulted in certain personal information being procured without authorization. As a third-party service provider, Alvaria came into possession of this personal information due to the services we provide Populus Financial Group, Inc. ("Populus"). Alvaria is providing notice to you on behalf of Populus (POC: RB Ramsey, General Counsel, 300 E. John Carpenter Fwy. Suite 900, Irving, TX 75062).

I. Nature of the Security Incident

On March 9, 2023, Alvaria was the victim of a sophisticated ransomware attack on a portion of our customer environment that maintained some of our customers' workforce management and/or outbound dialer data. Upon discovery, we immediately secured our networks, safely restored our systems and operations via viable backups, and initiated an investigation of the incident with the assistance of forensic experts. Our investigation determined that, on March 9, 2023, the unauthorized actor obtained access to and procured some data associated with Populus.

II. Number of Residents Affected and Notified

The affected data contain the personal information of one (1) New Hampshire resident. The data may include the individual's

- i. Notice to this New Hampshire resident was sent via first-class mail on May 23, 2023.

III. Steps Alvaria has Taken to Address the Incident

To help protect against a similar attack in the future, we have implemented additional measures and controls to enhance our security and to aggressively monitor our environment. We also notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the incident. In addition, we arranged to have Experian help protect the affected individuals from identity theft by offering, free of charge, 24 months of credit monitoring, fraud consultation, and identity theft restoration services. We also provided an explanation of additional steps that affected individuals may consider taking to further protect themselves and their information, including checking credit reports, utilizing fraud alert services, and placing a security freeze on credit reports. Enclosed is a copy of the notification letter to individuals.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Christie Babalis
General Counsel

Re: Notice of Data Incident

May 23, 2023

Dear Sample A. Sample:

Alvaria, Inc. ("Alvaria") is a workforce management and call center technology solution company. We write to inform you about a recent incident experienced by Alvaria that may have involved some of your personal information, which came into our possession due to the services we provide [Company]. We are providing you with information about the incident and steps you can take to protect yourself, should you feel it necessary to do so.

What Happened? On March 9, 2023, Alvaria was the victim of a sophisticated ransomware attack on a portion of our customer environment that maintained some of our customers' workforce management and/or outbound dialer data. Upon discovery, we immediately secured our networks, safely restored our systems and operations via viable backups, and initiated an investigation of the incident with the assistance of forensic experts. Our investigation determined that, on March 9, 2023, the unauthorized actor obtained access to and procured some data associated with [Company], which may have contained your personal information. Presently, we have no evidence of actual or attempted misuse of your personal information.

What Information Was Involved. The impacted files may have contained your personal information, including your [Extra1].

What We Are Doing. Upon discovery of the incident, we immediately secured our networks, implemented measures to further improve the security of our systems, safely restored our systems and operations via viable backups, initiated an investigation of the incident with the assistance of forensic experts, and notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"). We also are notifying you so that you may take further steps to protect your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so. In addition, we are providing you with access to 24 months of credit monitoring and identity restoration services through Experian at no charge to you. You must enroll by August 31, 2023.

What You Can Do. Please review the enclosed "Steps You can take to Help Protect Your Information" which describes the services we are offering, how to activate them, and provides further details on how to protect yourself. We encourage you to remain vigilant against the potential for identity theft and fraud and to monitor your accounts and credit reports for any suspicious activity.

For More Information. We sincerely regret any inconvenience this incident may have caused you. If you have additional questions, you may call our dedicated assistance line (toll-free), Monday–Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. Eastern Time, and Saturday–Sunday, 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time. If you believe there was fraudulent use of your information and would like to discuss how you may be able to resolve those issues, please reach out to an Experian agent at (833) 901-4564. If, after discussing your situation with an agent, it is determined that Identity Restoration support is needed, then an Experian Identity Restoration agent is available to work with you to investigate and resolve each incident of fraud that occurred (including, as appropriate, helping you with contacting credit grantors to dispute charges and close accounts; assisting you in placing a freeze on your credit file with the three major credit bureaus; and assisting you with contacting government agencies to help restore your identity to its proper condition).

The Terms and Conditions for this offer are located at www.ExperianIDWorks.com/restoration. You will also find self-help tips and information about identity protection at this site.

Free Credit Report

Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion). Obtaining a copy of your credit report from each agency on an annual basis, and reviewing it for suspicious activity, can help you spot problems and address them quickly. You can request your free credit report online at www.annualcreditreport.com or by phone at 1-877-322-8228. You can also request your free credit report by completing the request form at: www.annualcreditreport.com, and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four months.

* The Identity Theft Insurance is underwritten and administered by American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, an Assurant company. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

Fraud Alert

As a precaution against identity theft, you can consider placing a fraud alert on your credit file. A "fraud alert" tells creditors to contact you before opening a new account or changing an existing account. A fraud alert also lets your creditors know to watch for unusual or suspicious activity. To place a fraud alert, call any one of the three major credit reporting agencies listed below. An initial fraud alert remains effective for ninety days, and is free of charge. If you wish, you can renew the fraud alert at the expiration of this initial period. As soon as one credit agency confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts on your file.

Security Freeze

Under the law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident. If you are the victim of identity theft, you also have the right to file a police report and obtain a copy of it.

Federal law also allows consumers to place, lift or remove a security freeze on their credit reports at no charge. A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. Be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing, or other services.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must send a written request by regular, certified, or overnight mail at the addresses below to each of the three major credit reporting agencies: Equifax (www.equifax.com); Experian (www.experian.com); and TransUnion (www.transunion.com). You may also request the security freeze through each of the credit reporting agencies' websites or over the phone:

TransUnion®

P.O. Box 160
Woodlyn, PA 19094
1-800-916-8800

www.transunion.com/credit-freeze

In order to request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security Number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft; and
8. If you are not a victim of identity theft, include payment by check, money order, or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover only). Do not send cash through the mail.

The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to place a security freeze on your credit report. The credit bureaus must also send written confirmation to you within five (5) business days and provide you with a unique personal identification number (PIN) or password, or both that can be used by you to authorize the removal or lifting of the security freeze.

To lift the security freeze in order to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, you must call or send a written request to the credit reporting agencies by mail and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze as well as the identities of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report or the specific period of time you want the credit report available. The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to lift the security freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time.

To remove the security freeze, you must send a written request to each of the three credit bureaus by mail and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze. The credit bureaus have three (3) business days after receiving your request to remove the security freeze.
