Subject: Regulator Notice

Mr. Delaney:

On behalf of Apple, I am writing to inform you about a recent incident in which personal information maintained by Apple and relating to one New Hampshire resident may have been accessed by a now-former Apple employee without authorization.

Recently we discovered that an individual working at an Apple Retail Store accessed credit card information of some Apple customers who made purchases at that Store. The individual has been arrested, and we have terminated our relationship with the individual. Through our investigation, we have determined that the individual had access to credit card information of one New Hampshire resident.

In accordance with New Hampshire law, we will notify the one New Hampshire resident on June 16, 2011.

Sincerely,
