CONSUMER PROTECTION

Dear Attorney General Formella:

This letter serves to inform your office of a recent security incident affecting employees and shareholders of Ascent Technology, Inc. ("Ascent") and which may have resulted in the breach of personal information of 1 New Hampshire resident. This notice is sent pursuant to NH Rev Stat § 359-C:20.

Summary of the Incident

In late-July 2023, Ascent learned of a cyberattack against its systems and immediately engaged an outside cybersecurity consultant to begin a forensics assessment to investigate the cause and scope of this security incident.

After a thorough investigation, which ended on September 20, 2023, Ascent learned that the attacker gained access to Ascent's systems beginning on or around July 2, 2023 and was active on Ascent's systems until around July 30, 2023. The investigation also showed that the attacker may have exfiltrated files containing the personal information of 1 New Hampshire resident, who is also a shareholder of Ascent. The personal information, as defined under NH Rev Stat § 359-C:20, involved in this security incident includes the

Steps Taken by Ascent

Ascent notified this individual, and other affected individuals of other states, on November 22, 2023 by providing written notice. This notice advised individuals that their personal information was likely exposed, and recommended actions they could take in order to guard against the risk of fraud and identity theft, including availing themselves of 2 of free credit monitoring through Experian. A copy of that letter is included as Attachment A.

Ascent has received no reports of misuse of this personal data for fraudulent purposes and Ascent has not reported the incident to law enforcement.

In addition to taking steps to fully understand the scope of the security incident, Ascent has begun identifying ways in which it can further secure its systems to mitigate future threats, including by reviewing its Information Security Policies Manual to assess whether any changes are warranted, and with the assistance of an outside Chief Information Security Officer ("CISO").

If you have any further questions regarding this incident, please contact me at

Sincerely,

Christopher Escobedo Hart

Dear [REDACTED],

We at Ascent Technology, Inc. are writing to inform you of a recent security incident that we experienced that may have exposed your personal information. This notice is sent pursuant to NH Rev Stat § 359-C:20.

What Happened

In late-July 2023, we learned of a cyberattack against our systems. We immediately engaged an outside cybersecurity consultant to investigate the cause and scope of this security incident. After a thorough forensics investigation, which ended on September 20, 2023, Ascent learned that the attacker gained access to Ascent's systems beginning on or around July 2, 2023 and was active on Ascent's systems until around July 30, 2023.

Now that the investigation has concluded, Ascent has determined that the security incident likely exposed your personal information, including but not limited to your

What Are We Doing

First, we take the protection of your personal information seriously and are contacting you directly to explain what occurred and the resources available to you.

Second, Ascent has taken steps to fully understand the scope of the security incident. Ascent has begun identifying ways in which it can further secure its systems to mitigate future threats.

What Can You Do

Ascent is offering 24 months of complimentary identity monitoring services through Experian. To take advantage of these free services, please follow the instructions in Attachment 1.

In addition to using these services, we urge you to remain vigilant to guard against the risk of fraud and identity theft by reviewing your financial account statements, contacting your financial institutions should you discover anything suspicious, and monitoring your free credit reports.

In the event you do not chose to take advance of these free services through Experian, you may choose to protect yourself with automatic credit monitoring by placing a fraud alert on your credit files.

- A fraud alert alerts any entity requesting your credit report that you suspect you were a victim of fraud. When you or someone else attempts to open a credit account in your name, the lender should take measures to verify that you have authorized the request.
- To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the three major credit reporting agencies at the appropriate number listed below or via their website.

Equifax (888)766-0008 or www.fraudalert.equifax.com

Experian (888) 397-3742 or www.experian.com

TransUnion (800) 680-7289 or www.transunion.com

You may also considering placing a Security Freeze on your credit report. The instructions for placing a Security Freeze on your credit report are included in Attachment 2.

Finally, if you believe you have suffered identity theft or would like to obtain a statement about preventing identity theft, please contact the Federal Trade Commission at 1-877-FTC-HELP (1-877-382-4357), through the website www.identitytheft.gov, or at the mailing address 600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Washington, DC, 20580.

For More Information.

If you have any further questions regarding this incident or would like to speak to anyone for further assistance, please contact me at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Karen A. Prendergast

Attachment 2

A security freeze prohibits a credit reporting agency from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without written authorization. However, please be aware that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing or other services.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must send a written request to each of the three major consumer reporting agencies: Equifax (www.equifax.com); Experian (www.experian.com); and TransUnion (www.transunion.com) by regular, certified or overnight mail at the addresses below:

Equifax Security Freeze
P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348
(800) 685-1111

Experian Security Freeze
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
(888) 397-3742

Trans Union Security Freeze
Fraud Victim Assistance Department
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022-2000
(888) 909-8872

In order to request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security Number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.)
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft;
8. If you are not a victim of identity theft, include payment by check, money order, or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover only). Do not send cash through the mail.

If you have been a victim of identity theft, and you provide the credit reporting agency with a valid police report, it cannot charge you to place, lift or remove a security freeze. In all other cases, a credit reporting agency may charge you up to $5.00 each to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze.

The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to place a security freeze on your credit report. The credit bureaus must also send written confirmation to you within five (5) business days and provide you with a unique personal identification number (PIN) or password, or both that can be used by you to authorize the removal or lifting of the security freeze.

To lift the security freeze in order to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, you must call or send a written request to the credit reporting agencies by mail and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze as well as the identities of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report or the specific period of time you want the credit report available. The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to lift the security freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time.

To remove the security freeze, you must send a written request to each of the three credit bureaus by mail and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze. The credit bureaus have three (3) business days after receiving your request to remove the security freeze.
