RE: Data Incident Notification

To Whom It May Concern:

We serve as counsel for Atlas Real Estate Group LLC ("Atlas"), located at 970 Yuma Street, Denver, CO 80204. We write to provide notification of a recent data security incident. By providing this notice, Atlas does not waive any rights or defenses under New Hampshire law, including the data breach notification statute.

Atlas recently learned an unauthorized actor gained access to a Dropbox account through an old employee email account. Upon discovery, Atlas took immediate action to address and investigate the incident, which included engaging third-party specialists to assist with determining the nature and scope of the incident. A thorough investigation determined revealed that certain information maintained in the Dropbox was accessed by the unauthorized actor. Unfortunately, the unauthorized actor took steps to delete the data maintained within the affected Dropbox account. Through extensive efforts, Atlas ultimately recovered the deleted data and then began a thorough review of the contents of the data to determine the type of information contained within our files and to whom that information related. This review was completed on February 4, 2023, and Atlas worked to confirm address information in order to provide notification to individuals.

Atlas identified personal information related to three (3) New Hampshire residents who may have been impacted by this incident. The information potentially impacted included [REDACTED]. In response to this incident, Atlas provided written notice to the potentially impacted individuals via First Class Mail on March 28, 2023. A copy of the notice is attached hereto. While Atlas has no reason to believe that any personal information was misused as a result of this incident, Atlas is offering the potentially impacted individuals complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services for 12 months.

In response to this incident, Atlas performed password resets and implemented multi-factor authentication where applicable. Please contact me should you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Jason Goodwin, Esq.

Monitor Your Accounts

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your credit reports/account statements and explanation of benefits forms for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting bureau.

You have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver's license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
