Re: Incident Notice Provided for Beachbody, LLC

Dear Attorney General MacDonald,

We are providing notification on behalf of our client, Beachbody, LLC (“Beachbody”) in connection with an inadvertent disclosure incident that involved employee Form 1099 information.

Nature of the Incident.

On February 2, 2018, Beachbody learned that some of its Coaches received the wrong IRS Form 1099-MISC (1099). Beachbody immediately investigated the incident and discovered that due to an error, a small number of the 1099s were mis-mailed, and went to an incorrect Coach. The information on the mis-mailed 1099s included first name, last name and either the full social security number or the last four digits of the social security number.

Number of New Hampshire Residents Affected.

The data set at issue included eight (8) New Hampshire residents. A notification letter is being sent to these residents via regular mail on March 2, 2018. A sample notification letter is attached.

Steps Taken and Plans Relating to the Incident.

Beachbody has taken additional measures including verification procedures to prevent an incident like this from occurring again. Additionally, one year of identity protection services are being offered to the impacted individuals at no cost. The services will be provided through ID Experts’ MyIDCare, a well-regarded provider of these services. The services include: 12 months of credit monitoring, and fully managed identity theft recovery services.

Notice of Data Breach

Dear John Sample,

We are writing to inform you of a recent incident involving your personal information, which we previously raised to you. We take the security and privacy of information in our care seriously. We apologize for any inconvenience this incident may cause.

What Happened?

On February 2, 2018, we learned that some of our Coaches received the wrong IRS Form 1099-MISC (1099). We immediately investigated the incident and discovered that due to an error, a small number of the 1099s were mis-mailed, and went to an incorrect Coach.

What Information Was Involved?

You are receiving this notice because your 1099 information was sent to an incorrect Coach. The information in your 1099 included your first name, last name, and only the last four digits of your social security number.

What We Are Doing?

We have already taken additional measures including verification procedures to prevent an incident like this from occurring again. To further address this situation, we are offering one year of identity protection services, at no cost to you. The services will be provided through ID Experts, a well-regarded provider of these services. The services include: 12 months of credit monitoring, and fully managed identity theft recovery services.

What Can Affected Individuals Do?

With this protection, ID Experts will help you resolve issues if your identity is compromised. We encourage you to enroll in ID Experts' MyIDCare, using your Enrollment Code: by calling 1-800-939-4170 or visiting www.idexpertscorp.com/protect. ID Experts' MyIDCare experts are available at 1-800-939-4170, Monday through Friday from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. PST (excluding holidays and weekends). The services start on the date you enroll, and you can use the services at any time during the next 12 months. Please note the deadline to enroll is June 2, 2018.

For More Information.

We regret that this incident happened. If you have any questions, please contact us at Priority@Beachbody.com.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Gelfand
Chief Legal Officer
Beachbody, LLC

State Notification Requirements

All States.

You may obtain a copy of your credit report or request information on how to place a fraud alert or security freeze by contacting any of the national credit bureaus below. It is recommended that you remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing credit card account statements and monitoring your credit report for unauthorized activity.

Equifax P.O. Box 740241 Atlanta, GA 30374 1-800-685-1111 www.equifax.com	Experian P.O. Box 2002 Allen, TX 75013 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com

For residents of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

It is required by state law that you are informed of your right to obtain a police report if you are a victim of identity theft.

For residents of Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and West Virginia.

You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report by contacting any of the credit bureaus listed at above. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you may be able to use an online process, an automated telephone line or a written request. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. The consumer reporting agency may charge a fee of up to $5.00 to place a freeze or lift or remove a freeze and free if you are a victim of identity theft or the spouse of a victim of identity theft, and you have submitted a valid police report relating to the identity theft incident to the consumer reporting agency.

For residents of Iowa, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, North Carolina, Oregon, and West Virginia.

It is required by state laws to inform you that you may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, whether or not you suspect any unauthorized activity on your account.

For residents of Iowa.

State law advises you to report any suspected identity theft to law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

For residents of Oregon.

State laws advise you to report any suspected identity theft to law enforcement, as well as the Attorney General and Federal Trade Commission.

For residents of Illinois, Maryland, Rhode Island and North Carolina.

You can obtain information from the Federal Trade Commission, and for residents of Maryland and North Carolina, from your respective state Office of the Attorney General, about fraud alerts, security freezes, and steps you can take toward preventing identity theft.
