Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear Sir or Madam:

We represent Brennan Recupero Cascione Scungio and McAllister LLP, 362 Broadway, Providence, Rhode Island 02009 ("Brennan Recupero"), and are writing to notify you of a data security incident that may affect the security of the personal information of eleven (11) New Hampshire residents. The investigation into this incident is ongoing and will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, Brennan Recupero does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of New Hampshire law or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Cyber Security Incident

On August 15, 2016, the credentials for a Brennan Recupero attorney were briefly used by an unauthorized individual to remotely access its computer network. The unauthorized access was quickly discovered and Brennan Recupero immediately reset all user passwords to the network to prevent any further access to the network. In addition, Brennan Recupero launched an internal investigation and retained third-party forensic experts to determine whether the unauthorized individual accessed any data within our network and if so, the extent of that access. Brennan Recupero determined that while the unauthorized individual or individuals had access to Brennan Recupero's network, certain personal information was accessible and may have been viewed by the unauthorized individual including individuals' names, Social Security number, date of birth, address and bank account information.

Notice to New Hampshire Residents

On or around October 10, 2016, Brennan Recupero and its forensic experts completed a review of the files accessible to identify those whose information was accessible and the type of information related to these individuals that was contained in the accessible files. This review process involved both a programmatic and manual review of a variety of different file types to identify those who may be impacted. Given the complexity and volume of documents to be reviewed, this process took some time once the accessible files were identified. Brennan Recupero then moved to provide notice to the identified individuals who may be affected by this incident.

On November 22, 2016, Brennan Recupero began mailing notice letters to potentially affected individuals which includes eleven (11) New Hampshire residents. The notice will be provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken

Brennan Recupero is offering potentially affected individuals complimentary access to twelve (12) months of free credit monitoring and identity restoration services with AllClear ID. Additionally, Brennan Recupero is providing potentially affected individuals with information on how to protect against identity theft and fraud, including information on how to contact the Federal Trade Commission, the state attorney general, and law enforcement to report any attempted or actual identity theft and fraud. In addition to providing notice of this incident to you, Brennan Recupero is providing written notice of this incident to other state regulators where required.
