Re: Incident Notification

Dear Attorney General MacDonald:

We are writing on behalf of our client, Charles Stewart Mott Community College (“MCC”), to notify you of a security incident involving five New Hampshire residents. MCC is a community college located in Flint, Michigan.

MCC identified a security incident that resulted in the encryption of certain systems within its computer network. MCC immediately began to investigate, a cybersecurity firm was engaged, and steps were taken to address the incident and restore operations. MCC also contacted law enforcement. The investigation determined that an unauthorized person obtained access to MCC systems at different periods between November 27, 2020 and January 9, 2021, and transferred files maintained on one of MCC’s systems outside of the MCC network. On March 2, 2021, MCC determined that the personal information of New Hampshire residents was contained in the files, including the individuals’ name and one or more of the following data elements: Social Security number, driver’s license number, and/or financial account information. MCC subsequently determined that personal information belonging to five New Hampshire residents was involved.

Beginning today, April 13, 2021, MCC will mail the notification letters to the New Hampshire residents via First Class U.S. Mail. A sample copy of the notification letter is enclosed.<sup>1</sup> MCC is offering each of the New Hampshire residents a complimentary, one-year membership to credit monitoring and identity theft protection services through Experian. MCC is recommending that the individuals remain vigilant to the possibility of fraud by reviewing their account statements for unauthorized activity. MCC has also established a dedicated phone number that the individuals may call with related questions.

To help prevent something like this from happening again and to further protect the data MCC maintains, MCC has implemented additional safeguards and technical security measures, including multifactor authentication for all network and email access and additional password requirements.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions regarding this incident.

Sincerely,

Dear <<first_name>> <<middle_name>> <<last_name>> <<suffix>>,

At Charles Stewart Mott Community College, we understand the importance of protecting and securing the personal information that we maintain. We are contacting you because we recently addressed an incident that may have involved some of your information. This notice describes the incident, measures we have taken, and steps that you may consider taking.

Mott Community College identified a security incident that resulted in the encryption of certain systems within our computer network. We immediately began to investigate, a cybersecurity firm was engaged, and steps were taken to address the incident and restore operations. We also contacted law enforcement. Through our investigation, we determined that an unauthorized person obtained access to our systems at different periods between November 27, 2020 and January 9, 2021, and transferred files maintained on one of our systems outside of our network. The files acquired by the unauthorized person may have included information relating to current and former students, family members of students who applied for federal financial aid, employees, contractors and other vendors, and participants in non-credit classes and workforce training programs offered by the College. On March 2, 2021, we determined that information related to your relationship with the College may have been included in the files acquired. This information includes your name and one or more of the following pieces of information: Social Security number, driver's license number, and financial account information (if such information was shared with us as part of our relationship with you).

While we have no indication that your information was actually viewed by the unauthorized person, or that it has been misused, we wanted to notify you of this incident and assure you that we take it very seriously. Out of an abundance of caution, we are offering you a complimentary one-year membership of Experian's® IdentityWorks<sup>SM</sup> Credit 3B. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with identity protection services focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. IdentityWorks Credit 3B is completely free to you and enrolling in this program will not hurt your credit score. For instructions on how to activate your complimentary one-year membership, as well as some additional steps you can take in response to the incident, please see the additional information provided in this letter.

Your confidence and trust are important to us, and we sincerely regret that this incident occurred and apologize for any inconvenience or concern. To help prevent something like this from happening again and further protect personal information, we have implemented additional safeguards and technical security measures, including multifactor authentication for all network and email access and additional password requirements.

If you have any questions, please call 1-855-484-1189, Monday through Friday, between 9:00am and 6:30pm Eastern Time.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Shelton

Fraud Alerts and Credit or Security Freezes:

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That's because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they can't see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

You'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.
