Re: CoreLogic Credco

Dear Office of the Attorney General:

CoreLogic Credco ("Credco") resells credit reports to authorized business clients who use the reports to make lending decisions. An unauthorized third party fraudulent obtained credentials to obtain access to Credco credit report ordering system.

An investigation revealed that the third party used ordered the consumer credit reports of one (1) New Hampshire resident from Credco.

Upon learning that the third party ordered consumer credit reports, Credco immediately suspended the access to the user account and notified the relevant credit bureaus of the unauthorized activities.

This week, Credco will send a notice letter to the resident from New Hampshire notifying them of the incident. Attached please find a sample of the notice letter. If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to call me at (949) 214-1535 or e-mail me at richardmiller@corelogic.com.

This letter is to inform you that your personal information has been accessed without proper authorization. CoreLogic Credco ("Credco") learned that between December 17, 2012 and January 7, 2012 an individual obtained access to CoreLogic's databases to attain copies of your consumer information without proper authentication.

The consumer information consists of information typically found on a consumer credit report. Such information includes your name and address and one or more of the following: Social Security number, date of birth and account numbers.

While we have no evidence that your consumer information has been used for identify theft, we recommend that you monitor your credit for the next several months. In order to assist you with protecting your consumer information and detecting any incidents of potential misuse or identity theft, we have arranged for you to receive identity protection and credit monitoring from AllClear ID, The Alert Network, at no cost to you.

In order to assist you with protecting your consumer information and detecting any incidents of potential misuse or identity theft, we have arranged for you to receive, at no cost to you, one year of identity protection and credit monitoring services from AllClear ID, The Alert Network.

To receive this complimentary identity protection service, you must register with AllClear ID by August 31, 2013 and you will need to provide the redemption code that is listed at the top of this page. You may register online at enroll.allclearid.com or by mail using the enclosed mail-in registration form. Please note that additional action after registration may be required by you in order to activate your phone alerts and monitoring options. Mailed registrations may take up to ten (10) business days before the registration is received and you are able to log-in to your account. Please see the enclosure to learn more about AllClear ID.

In addition, as a preventive step, we recommend you closely monitor your financial accounts and, if you see any unauthorized activity, promptly contact your financial institution. You also may want to contact the three nationwide credit reporting agencies (Equifax, Experian and TransUnion) to:

- Add a fraud alert statement to or request a security freeze of your credit file at all three national credit reporting agencies: Equifax, TransUnion and Experian. Fraud alerts will typically remain on your credit file for 90 days and security freezes will last until you remove them. A request for a fraud alert is free; there are typically fees associated with placing a security freeze to your credit file, depending on your state of residence.
- Receive a free copy of your credit report.

If you are subscribing to a Premium Service on your own behalf, then at the end of your initial subscription period, your subscription will automatically renew on a month to month basis until you terminate it in accordance with this Section or fail to provide payment when due. In addition, the Premium Service may be terminated or suspended at any time with or without notice if payment is not received when due or if you breach any of the terms & conditions set forth herein. If your subscription to the Premium Service expires because you fail to renew it or fail to provide payment when due, AllClear ID may convert you to the Basic Service for one (1) year, subject to the terms & conditions applicable to the Basic Service as set forth herein. If you transfer from one Service to another, the terms and description of such newly elected Service will apply.
