Re: Notification of a Potential Data Security Incident

Dear Attorney General Formella:

We represent Fioravanti Custom Products LLC dba Essential Wholesale & Labs (“Fioravanti”), located at 2211 NW Nicolai St. Portland, OR 97210, in connection with an incident that may have involved the personal information of ten (10) New Hampshire residents, and we provide this notice on behalf of Fioravanti pursuant to N.H. Rev. Stat. § 359-C:20. This notice will be supplemented, if necessary, with any new, significant facts discovered subsequent to its submission. While Fioravanti is notifying you of this incident, Fioravanti does not waive any rights or defenses relating to the incident, this notice, or the applicability of New Hampshire law on personal jurisdiction.

NATURE OF THE INCIDENT

Fioravanti has identified that its website interface contained code that Fioravanti had not approved to be added to the website design. Upon discovering the incident, Fioravanti began an internal investigation and engaged a leading computer forensics firm to further examine its network and confirm the security of its systems. Through that investigation, Fioravanti determined that the code allowed a third party to view and potentially capture information that was entered on the checkout page as customer made purchases on the website. The information that would have been entered on the checkout page included customer names, billing addresses, payment card information, and email addresses. Fioravanti determined that purchases made between April 27 – May 22, 2022, and October 11 – November 5, 2022, were subject to the code.

NOTICE TO THE NEW HAMPSHIRE RESIDENTS

Fioravanti determined that the incident may have involved ten (10) New Hampshire residents. Fioravanti mailed notification letters to these individuals via US First Class mail on February 21, 2023. Enclosed is a copy of the notice that is being sent to the New Hampshire residents.

STEPS TAKEN RELATING TO THE INCIDENT

Upon learning of the incident, Fioravanti promptly contained the incident by removing the unauthorized code. It also engaged a forensic security firm through counsel to investigate and confirm the security of its systems. Fioravanti is undertaking efforts to reduce the risk of a similar incident occurring in the future, including enhancing its technical security measures, ensuring its website is compliant with relevant security standards, and upgrading its ecommerce platform. Finally, as discussed above, Fioravanti is notifying the involved individuals, and has coordinated with payment card brands and federal law enforcement to keep them apprised of the situation.

Notice of Data Security Breach

February 16, 2023

Dear ■■■■■;

Essential Wholesale & Labs (“EWL”) is committed to the privacy of our customers and takes the protection of personal information that is entrusted to us seriously. Unfortunately, we are writing to make you aware of a recent data security incident that may have involved some of your personal information.

What Happened. On May 22, 2022, EWL identified that its website’s interface contained code that EWL had not approved to be added to the website design. Upon identifying the issue, EWL conducted an internal investigation and then enlisted the help of an outside third-party forensic firm to conduct a further investigation. On October 3, 2022, the investigation determined that the code was placed on the website by an unauthorized third party. The investigation also determined that the code allowed the third party to view and potentially capture information that was entered on the checkout page when customer as customers made purchases on the website. EWS has determined that information entered into our website’s checkout page for purchases made April 27 - May 22, 2022, and October 11 - November 5, 2022, may have been scraped by the third party.

What Information Was Involved. Based on our investigation, information entered into the website’s checkout page including your name, shipping address, payment card information, and email address may have been involved.

What We Are Doing. Upon learning of the situation, EWL immediately launched an internal investigation. We then engaged an external third-party forensic firm to investigate the incident and notified law enforcement. We are also working with credit card brands to address the issue. We have also engaged a separate third party to review our website for vulnerabilities and updated our website’s infrastructure to reduce the likelihood of this type of incident occurring in the future.

What You Can Do. It is generally recommended that you review your credit card statements and financial account for unauthorized activity. We also encourage you to review the information on steps to protect yourself against identity theft or fraud, which is included the enclosed Additional Important Information sheet.

For More Information. For further information and assistance, please call 888-253-7598 from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Eastern Time (excluding some U.S. holidays).

We value the trust you place in us and take our responsibility to safeguard our customers’ information seriously. We apologize for any inconvenience this incident might cause.

Sincerely,

Mike Ulwelling, Chief Executive Officer
Essential Wholesale & Labs

Additional Important Information

As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant to protect against potential fraud and/or identity theft by, among other things, reviewing your account statements and monitoring credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You should also promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidents of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, including the police and your state's attorney general, as well as the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC").

You may wish to review the tips provided by the FTC on fraud alerts, security/credit freezes and steps you can take to avoid identity theft. For more information and to contact the FTC, please visit www.ftc.gov/idtheft or call 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338). You may also contact the FTC at Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

Credit Reports: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report once every 12 months from each of the three national credit reporting agencies by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com, by calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You can print a copy of the request form at <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/manualRequestForm.action>.

Alternatively, you may elect to purchase a copy of your credit report by contacting one of the three national credit reporting agencies. Contact information for the three national credit reporting agencies for the purpose of requesting a copy of your credit report or for general inquiries is as follows:

Equifax 1-866-349-5191 www.equifax.com P.O. Box 740241 Atlanta, GA 30374	Experian 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com P.O. Box 2002 Allen, TX 75013	TransUnion 1-800-888-4213 www.transunion.com P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19016

Fraud Alerts: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. A fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit report for one (1) year. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any new accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three national credit reporting agencies using the contact information listed above. Additional information is available at www.annualcreditreport.com.

Credit and Security Freezes: You may have the right to place a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Since the instructions for how to establish a credit freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three major credit reporting companies as specified below to find out more information:

Equifax Security Freeze 1-888-298-0045 www.equifax.com P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348	Experian Security Freeze 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013	TransUnion Security Freeze 1-888-909-8872 www.transunion.com P.O. Box 160 Woodlyn, PA 19094

In order to request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security Number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

To lift the security freeze in order to allow a specific entity or individual access to your credit report, you must call or send a written request to the credit reporting agencies by mail or, if available, comply with the consumer reporting agencies' online procedures for lifting a security freeze, and include proper identification (name, address, and social security number) and the PIN number or password provided to you when you placed the security freeze as well as the identities of those entities or individuals you would like to receive your credit report or the specific period of time you want the credit report available. The credit reporting agencies have three (3) business days after receiving your request to lift the security freeze for those identified entities or for the specified period of time.

This notification was not delayed by law enforcement.

Individuals interacting with credit reporting agencies have rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage you to review your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting https://files.consumerfinance.gov/f/documents/bcfp_consumer-rights-summary_2018-09.pdf, or by requesting information in writing from the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.
