Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear Attorney General MacDonald:

We represent Full House Resorts, Inc. ("FHR"), a casino developer and operator based in Summerlin South, Nevada. This letter is being sent because the personal information of one (1) New Hampshire resident may have been affected by a recent data security incident experienced by one of the casinos FHR operates called Bronco Billy's Casino, which is located in Cripple Creek, Colorado. The incident may have involved unauthorized access to or acquisition of one (1) resident's name, address, tax information, Social Security number, and financial account information.

On May 5, 2020, FHR detected a data security incident that disrupted access to certain systems and data. Upon discovering this, FHR immediately initiated an investigation and took steps to secure its network. FHR also engaged cybersecurity experts to assist with the investigation and determine whether sensitive information may have been accessed during the incident. As result of this investigation, FHR learned that personal information may have been accessed and/or acquired without authorization during the incident. On or about July 1, 2020, FHR identified that personal information belonging to certain individuals may have been affected. FHR worked diligently to identify address information, determine what information may have been affected for each individual, and prepare the materials needed to notify you and the potentially impacted individuals. These activities were substantially completed on August 18, 2020. On August 25, 2020, FHR confirmed that information belonging to one (1) resident of New Hampshire may have been affected.

FHR notified one (1) potentially affected New Hampshire resident of this incident via the attached sample letter, or a substantially similar version, on August 27, 2020. In that letter, FHR offered complimentary credit monitoring and identity theft prevention and restoration services through ID Experts, a data recovery services specialist. Importantly, FHR is not presently aware of any misuse of the impacted information. FHR has also notified the Federal Bureau of Investigation of this incident.

Please contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Julie Keersmaekers

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO FURTHER PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity: As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant and review your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You should also promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC").

Copy of Credit Report: You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting <http://www.annualcreditreport.com/>, calling toll-free 877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You can also contact one of the following three national credit reporting agencies:

|--|---|---|---|
| Equifax P.O. Box 740241 Atlanta, GA 30374 1-866-349-5191 www.equifax.com | Experian P.O. Box 2002 Allen, TX 75013 1-888-397-3742 www.experian.com | TransUnion P.O. Box 1000 Chester, PA 19016 1-800-916-8800 www.transunion.com | Free Annual Report P.O. Box 105281 Atlanta, GA 30348 1-877-322-8228 www.annualcreditreport.com |
|--|---|---|---|

Fraud Alert: You may want to consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least 90 days. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>.

Security Freeze: Under U.S. law, you have the right to put a security freeze on your credit file for up to one year at no cost. This will prevent new credit from being opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate the freeze. A security freeze is designed to prevent potential creditors from accessing your credit report without your consent. As a result, using a security freeze may interfere with or delay your ability to obtain credit. You must separately place a security freeze on your credit file with each credit reporting agency. In order to place a security freeze, you may be required to provide the consumer reporting agency with information that identifies you including your full name, Social Security number, date of birth, current and previous addresses, a copy of your state-issued identification card, and a recent utility bill, bank statement or insurance statement.

Additional Free Resources: You can obtain information from the consumer reporting agencies, the FTC or from your respective state Attorney General about steps you can take toward preventing identity theft. You may report suspected identity theft to local law enforcement, including to the FTC or to the Attorney General in your state. Residents of North Carolina can obtain more information from their Attorneys General using the contact information below.
