Re: Data Incident Notification

To Whom It May Concern:

We serve as counsel for Futures Without Violence (“FUTURES”) located at 100 Montgomery Street, The Presidio, San Francisco, California, and write to inform you of a data security incident. By providing this notice, FUTURES does not waive any rights or defenses under New Hampshire law, including the data breach notification statute.

In August 2023, FUTURES became aware that someone posing as a FUTURES employee interacted with one of our partners by email. FUTURES promptly reported the incident to law enforcement and began working with forensic investigators to understand the scope of the incident, to remediate it, and to implement additional data security measures, including shutting down certain systems. The incident most likely resulted from an unauthorized party obtaining a single employee’s email login information. No evidence of unauthorized access to other employee email accounts was found.

Following the review related to the network files, FUTURES also worked with a forensic investigations team to conduct a thorough review of the contents of the email account subject to unauthorized access to determine the type of information contained in the account and to whom that information related. The investigation was completed in October 2023.

Notice of Security Incident

Dear <<first name last name>>,

Futures Without Violence (“FUTURES”) is writing to inform you of a data security event that may impact some of your personal information shared with and maintained by FUTURES. This notice provides information about the event, FUTURES’ response, and resources available to help protect your information from possible misuse, though at this point we have not seen evidence of your information being misused.

What happened?

In August 2023, we became aware that someone posing as a FUTURES employee interacted with one of our partners by email. FUTURES promptly reported the incident to law enforcement and began working with forensic investigators to understand the scope of the incident, to remediate it, and to implement additional data security measures, including shutting down certain systems. The incident most likely resulted from an unauthorized party obtaining a single employee’s email login information. No evidence of unauthorized access to other employee email accounts was found.

What information was involved?

In October 2023, it was determined that the unauthorized actor may have accessed and possibly acquired the following types of information for certain FUTURES partners, including you:

. At this time, we have no indications that any of this information has been misused.

What we are doing.

As described above, an investigation was undertaken to assess and remediate the incident. We also reset all employees’ passwords and enhanced the security of our systems. We will also be notifying state regulators and officials, as required.

As a safeguard, we have arranged for you to enroll, at no cost to you, in TransUnion’s Single Bureau Credit Monitoring/Single Bureau Credit Report/Single Bureau Credit Score services. These services provide you with alerts for <<service length>> from the date of enrollment when changes occur to your credit file. This notification is sent to you the same day that the change or update takes place with the bureau. Finally, we are providing you with proactive fraud assistance to help with any questions that you might have or in event that you become a victim of fraud. These services will be provided by Cyberscout through Identity Force, a TransUnion company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services.

To enroll in Credit Monitoring services at no charge, please log on to <<URL>> and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services: <CODE HERE>

In order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within 90 days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under the age of 18 years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

A credit card is not required for enrollment in TransUnion's services. If you have questions about the product, need assistance with questions regarding the incident or would like an alternative to enrolling in TransUnion's credit monitoring services online, please call the help line at <<customer service number>> and supply the fraud specialist with your unique code listed above. Representatives are available for 90 days from the date of this letter, to assist you with questions regarding this incident, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. EST, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

What you can do.

We also encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of phishing, identity theft, and fraud by regularly reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Please report any suspicious activity to appropriate law enforcement.

We recommend that you review the tips provided by the Federal Trade Commission's Consumer Information website, a valuable resource with some helpful tips on how to protect your information. Additional information is available at <https://consumer.ftc.gov/identity-theft-and-online-security>. To file a complaint with the FTC, go to IdentityTheft.gov or call 1-877-ID-THEFT (877-438-4338). Complaints filed with the FTC will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, which is a database made available to law enforcement agencies. For more information, you may also write to the FTC at:
