NH. Department of Justice
Att: Kelly Ayotte, Attorney General
33 Capitol Street
Concord, NH 03301

Dear Attorney General Ayotte,

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that Granite State College of 8 Old Suncook Road, Concord, NH recently experienced a security breach. In accordance with Title XXXI Trade and Commerce, Chapter 359-C:20 we hereby notify your office of the security breach involving electronically-stored personal information about two individuals that are associated with Granite State College. We believe the breach to have occurred sometime between the hours of 5:30 PM – December 1, 2008 and 8:30 AM December 2, 2008. Sensitive information may have been accessed by an unauthorized person(s) that includes each individual's first name, last name and social security number. We have filed a police report with the Concord Police Department and a thorough investigation has been conducted and remains ongoing. To date, we have no way to know whether sensitive data was accessed for purposes of misuse.

On December 15, 2008 we sent written notice via the U.S. Postal Service to each of the individuals informing them of the unauthorized access to their information and providing to them credit monitoring and credit security freeze information should they decide to pursue either or both of these options.

I am available to meet with you or your staff should you have any questions.

Sincerely yours,

Michael M. Moroukian, Dean
