Re: Incident Notification

Dear Attorney General MacDonald:

We are writing on behalf of our client, Howard & Howard Attorneys, PLLC (“Howard & Howard”), to notify you of a security incident involving 6 New Hampshire residents.

Howard & Howard conducted an investigation involving unauthorized access to an employee’s email account. Upon first learning of the incident, Howard & Howard secured the employee’s email account, launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the incident, and a computer security firm was engaged to assist. The investigation determined that an unauthorized person had access to the contents of the employee’s email account at times between February 1, 2020 and February 12, 2020. The investigation did not determine whether the unauthorized individual viewed or accessed any of the emails in the account; however, Howard & Howard was not able to rule out that possibility. Howard & Howard searched the contents of the account to identify documents containing personal information. On April 22, 2020, Howard & Howard determined that an email or attachment in the account contained the Social Security numbers of 6 New Hampshire residents.

Beginning on June 30, 2020, Howard & Howard will notify the New Hampshire residents in substantially the same form as the enclosed letter via United States Postal Service First Class Mail in accordance with N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 359-C:20.¹ Howard & Howard is offering the New Hampshire individuals a complimentary, one-year membership to credit monitoring, fraud consultation, and identity theft restoration services through Experian. Howard & Howard is recommending that individuals remain vigilant to the possibility of fraud by reviewing their account statements for unauthorized activity. Howard & Howard has also established a dedicated call center where all individuals may obtain more information regarding the incident.

To help prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future, Howard & Howard is taking steps to enhance its existing security protocols and re-educating its staff for awareness on these types of incidents.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

John P. Hutchins

- TransUnion, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com, 1-800-916-8800

If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your state. You can obtain information from these sources about steps an individual can take to avoid identity theft as well as information about fraud alerts and security freezes. You should also contact your local law enforcement authorities and file a police report. Obtain a copy of the police report in case you are asked to provide copies to creditors to correct your records. Contact information for the Federal Trade Commission is as follows:

- Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft

If your username and password to an online account was involved, it is also advisable to change your password to the account as well as any other accounts that use the same or a similar password.

Fraud Alerts and Credit or Security Freezes:

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That's because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they can't see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

You'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.
