RE: Notification of Data Security Breach Incident

Dear Attorney General:

We are writing to provide you with written notification regarding the nature and circumstances of a breach of customer data that occurred at HSBC Bank USA, National Association ("HSBC").

Between October 29, 2018 and November 2, 2018 we became aware that online accounts were being accessed by unauthorized users. On November 13, 2018 we determined that four New Hampshire residents were impacted. We suspended online access to the accounts as soon as they were identified. The customer information that may have been accessible online included full name, mailing address, phone number, email address, date of birth, account numbers, account types, account balances, transaction history, payee account information and statement history where available.

On November 1, 2018 we enhanced the authentication process for HSBC Personal Internet Banking by adding an additional layer of security that requires the customer to take action on a One Time Passcode sent to their device.

HSBC takes this very seriously and deeply regrets that this incident occurred. HSBC will notify the impacted New Hampshire residents by November 26, 2018 with a letter explaining the incident. HSBC is offering a complimentary one-year subscription to Identity Guard®, a credit monitoring and identity theft protection service. This program is provided by Intersections Inc., a leading global provider of consumer and corporate identity risk management services. It provides essential monitoring and protection of not only credit data, but it also monitors internet chat rooms and newsgroups, and alerts customers if their social security number, credit cards and bank account numbers are found in unsecure online locations. A copy of the customer notice template is enclosed.

What You Can Do.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Monitor Transactions: Monitor your account transactions for any unauthorized activity and contact us immediately if any is noticed. 2. Place a Fraud Alert: Place a fraud alert on your credit file, which tells creditors to contact you before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. Call any one of the three major Credit Bureaus. As soon as one Credit Bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts as well. All three credit reports will be sent to you, free of charge, for your review.

- Experian at 1-888-397-3742 or www.experian.com/consumer
- Equifax at 1-800-525-6285 or www.equifax.com
- Trans Union at 1-800-680-7289 or www.transunion.com

3. Obtain Credit Reports: Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you periodically obtain and review your credit reports for any information relating to fraudulent transactions to help you spot problems and address them quickly. Victim information sometimes is held for use or shared among a group of thieves at different times. You should remain vigilant over the next 12 to 24 months and promptly report any incidents of identity theft to HSBC and the Credit Bureaus.

4. File Reports: If you find suspicious activity on your credit reports or have reason to believe your information is being misused, call or contact your local law enforcement and file a police report. Get a copy of the police report; many creditors want the information it contains to absolve you of the fraudulent debts. Also, file a complaint with the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338). Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible to law enforcers for their investigations. If you do not have Internet access, call the FTC's Identity Theft Hotline, toll-free: 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); TTY: 1-866-653-4261; or write: Identity Theft Clearinghouse, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.
