Re: Update Regarding Data Security Incident

Dear New Hampshire Office of the Attorney General:

This letter is to provide an update regarding the recent data security incident experienced by Life Quotes, Inc. (“Life Quotes”) described in our previous correspondence dated December 31, 2020.

On January 14, 2021, Life Quotes learned that personal information relating to certain Life Quotes employees and vendors may have been involved in the incident, including one New Hampshire resident. The information involved include the resident’s Social Security number.

Life Quotes will provide written notification to these employees and vendors whose data may have been involved in the incident. These individuals will receive a letter notifying them of the incident, offering complimentary identity monitoring services, and providing additional steps they can take to protect their personal information. The notification letters will be sent via USPS First Class Mail on or before February 13, 2021.
