Re: LPL Financial LLC
Incident Notification

Dear Attorney General Foster:

We are writing to notify you of a security incident involving personal information of one New Hampshire resident.

Nature of the Incident. On September 20, 2017, LPL Financial (LPL) received notice from one of its third-party audit firms that the audit firm experienced an email compromise. The service provider reported that the email accounts involved may have contained the personal information of certain LPL clients. Importantly, the incident did not involve LPL's systems or email accounts.

Investigating the Disclosure. Upon learning about the incident, LPL immediately launched an investigation and, working with the service provider, identified those LPL clients whose personal information may have been contained in the email accounts involved. Findings from the investigation show that the email accounts contained the personal information of one New Hampshire resident, including name, address, Social Security number and LPL account number.

Communicating with Affected Individual. Although LPL has no indication that personal information was misused in any way, commencing today, LPL is sending written notification via U.S. regular mail to one New Hampshire residents in accordance with N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 359-C:20. A sample notification letter is attached to this letter as Exhibit A.

Services to Affected Individual. LPL is offering the potentially affected individuals a one-year subscription to Experian's IdentityWorksSM Credit 3B, a credit monitoring and identity theft protection product. In addition, LPL has prepared its call center to answer questions about the incident from potentially affected individuals. LPL is also recommending that potentially affected individuals remain vigilant to the possibility of fraud and identity theft by reviewing their account statements and credit reports for unauthorized activity.

Please let us know if you have any questions, or if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Hillary A. Russell

[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. [REDACTED],

As a former client of LPL Financial LLC, protecting your privacy remains a top priority for our firm. Regrettably, on September 20, 2017 we were notified that a service provider of LPL suffered an email compromise. As a result, your personal information, including name, address, Social Security number and LPL account number may have been exposed to unauthorized access or acquisition.

We maintain a strong commitment to protecting your information and strive to communicate openly should it ever be compromised. While we have no evidence that the information has been misused, we wanted to make you aware of the incident and the steps we are taking to help safeguard your personal information. With any incident, LPL Financial considers whether to amend our current procedures to prevent similar incidents from occurring and, if improvements are merited, procedures are revised.

If you believe there was fraudulent use of your information and would like to discuss how you may be able to resolve those issues, please reach out to an Experian agent. If, after discussing your situation with an agent, it is determined that identity restoration support is needed then an Experian Identity Restoration agent is available to work with you to investigate and resolve each incident of fraud that occurred (including, as appropriate, helping you with contacting credit grantors to dispute charges and close accounts; assisting you in placing a freeze on your credit file with the three major credit bureaus; and assisting you with contacting government agencies to help restore your identity to its proper condition).

² Identity theft insurance is underwritten by insurance company subsidiaries or affiliates of American International Group, Inc. (AIG). The description herein is a summary and intended for informational purposes only and does not include all terms, conditions and exclusions of the policies described. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

You have the right to file a police report regarding this breach in the county in which you reside. You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. By filing and obtaining a copy of the police report, you will be able to avoid the fee associated with obtaining a security freeze. You may obtain a security freeze on your credit report by sending a request in writing to all credit reporting agencies. A security freeze will prohibit the credit reporting agency from releasing your credit report or any information without your express consent and is intended to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. A security freeze may, however, delay your ability to obtain credit. To place a freeze, you must write each of the following three credit reporting agencies:

- Equifax Security Freeze, P.O. Box 105788, Atlanta, Georgia 30348
- Experian Security Freeze, P.O. Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013
- TransUnion Security Freeze, P.O. Box 6790, Fullerton, CA 92834-6760

The following information must be provided when requesting a security freeze:

- Full name (including middle initial and suffix), address, Social Security number, and date of birth
- All addresses where you have lived during the past five years
- A copy of your driver license or other government-issued identification card
- A copy of a utility bill or bank or insurance statement that displays your name, current mailing address, and date of issue
- Police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning the identity theft; or, if unavailable, a fee may be incurred for each placement, temporary lift, or removal of a security freeze

We apologize for any inconvenience or concern this situation may cause. We at LPL Financial believe it is important for you to be fully informed of any potential risk resulting from this incident. Maintaining the privacy of your information is a key priority for LPL Financial, and we will continue to take the needed steps to protect your information.

If you have any further questions regarding this incident, please call either your LPL Financial advisor directly or the LPL Financial Client Service Line at (800) 877-7210 x6835, between 5:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. PST.

Sincerely,
