Re: Supplemental Notice of Data Event

Dear Sir or Madam:

We continue to represent National Western Life Group, Inc. ("NWL") located at 10801 North Mopac Expressway, building 3, Austin, TX 78759, and write to supplement NWL's January 25, 2021 notification to your office regarding a data event, attached for your reference as Exhibit AA. By providing this notice, NWL does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of New Hampshire law, the applicability of the New Hampshire data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

As advised in our January 25, 2020 notice, on August 15, 2020, NWL discovered a malware incident involving certain company systems. NWL immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party investigators, to determine the nature and scope of this event. The investigation confirmed that certain data had been accessed and/or acquired by an unauthorized actor as a result of this event between August 7, 2020 and August 10, 2020.

On or about September 29, 2020 a third-party firm was engaged to programmatically and manually review the files at issue, and to identify all impacted individuals and the types of data associated with those individuals. Concurrently, NWL internally reviewed their databases and on December 21, 2020, preliminarily determined the scope of impacted individuals as a result of this internal review. On January 21, 2021 NWL confirmed that 664 New Hampshire residents were included in the impacted individuals identified through their preliminary internal review. NWL began mailing notices to impacted individuals on January 25, 2021.

Mullen.law

The third party programmatic and manual review of the remaining impacted files has concluded and on July 7, 2021 NWL determined that notice was required to an additional 371 New Hampshire residents regarding this event. Additionally, supplemental notice was determined to be required to 9 previously notified New Hampshire residents, to advise these individuals that additional types of protected data that were not previously disclosed were determined to be included in the impacted files. NWL confirmed that the information that could have been subject to unauthorized access for these individuals includes name, address, Social Security number, and date of birth and/or account numbers of New Hampshire residents.

Notice to New Hampshire Residents

On July 27, 2021, NWL provided written notice of this incident to the additional impacted individuals, which includes 371 New Hampshire residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit BB. NWL believes the notification process to be substantially complete.

Re: Notice of Data Event

Dear Sir or Madam:

We represent National Western Life Insurance Company (“NWL”) located at 10801 North Mopac Expressway, Building 3, Austin, TX 78759, and are writing to supplement our previous notification to your office of an incident that may affect the security of some personal information relating to New Hampshire residents. NWL is sharing confidential commercial and financial information. Should there be a request to share this information beyond the Department, we ask that you advise us of same. Disclosure of such information could harm or impair NWL’s private interest in controlling the availability of intrinsically valuable records, including records relating to security and business operations.

Nature of the Data Event

As discussed in NWL’s preliminary notice to your office, on August 15, 2020, NWL discovered a malware incident impacting certain company systems. NWL immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party investigators, to determine the nature and scope of this event. The investigation determined that certain files were accessed by an unauthorized actor as a result of this event. On or about September 29, 2020 a third-party firm was engaged to programmatically and manually review the files at issue to identify all impacted individuals and the types of data associated with those individuals. A significant number of files required review and that review is ongoing. Concurrently, NWL internally reviewed their databases and on December 21, 2020, preliminarily determined the scope of impacted individuals as a result of this internal review. On January 21, 2021 NWL confirmed that six hundred and sixty four (664) New Hampshire residents were included in the impacted individuals identified through their preliminary internal review. This notice will be supplemented with additional information upon completion of the manual review.

The types of personal information potentially impacted vary by individual but at this time, include name and the following: life insurance or annuity policy number, Social Security Number and financial account information.

Notice to New Hampshire Residents

On January 25, 2021, NWL began providing written notice of this incident to potentially affected individuals, which includes six hundred and sixty four (664) New Hampshire residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon learning of this incident, NWL moved quickly to investigate and respond to this incident, assess the security of its systems, and restore functionality to its environment. As part of its ongoing commitment to the security of information, NWL notified federal law enforcement and is reviewing and enhancing existing policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of a similar future event.

As an added precaution, NWL will offer impacted New Hampshire residents access to twelve (12) months of free credit monitoring and identity protection services through CyberScout. NWL will also be providing impacted New Hampshire residents with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud. Such guidance includes information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, reminders to remain vigilant for incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and recommendations regarding how to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

Contact Information

Should you have any questions regarding this notification or other aspects of the data security event, please contact us at (267) 930-4842.

Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<Name 1>>:

National Western Life Insurance Company (“NWL”) is writing to notify you of an incident that may have impacted the security of your personal information. We want to provide you with information about the incident, our response, and steps you may take to better protect against possible misuse of your personal information, should you feel it necessary to do so.

What Happened? On August 15, 2020, NWL discovered a malware incident impacting certain company systems. We immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party investigators, to determine the nature and scope of this event. The investigation confirmed that certain data had been accessed and/or acquired by an unauthorized actor as a result of this event from August 7 to August 10, 2020. On December 21, 2020 we confirmed that personal information related to you was included in the impacted data.

What Information was Involved? The investigation and thorough review of the data that was impacted by this event is ongoing. To date, the investigation determined that your name and <<Data Elements>> may have been accessed and/or acquired by an unauthorized individual. The policy number for a current or former life insurance or annuity policy to which you may have been a party may have also been impacted by this event. As our investigation continues, should we learn that any additional types of sensitive data relating to you were impacted, we will update you to provide this additional information.

What We Are Doing. We take this incident and the security of personal information in our care very seriously. Upon learning of this incident, we moved quickly to investigate and respond to this incident, assess the security of our systems, restore functionality to our environment, and notify potentially affected individuals. As part of our ongoing commitment to the security of information, we notified federal law enforcement and are reviewing and enhancing existing policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of a similar future event.

As a precautionary measure, we are notifying potentially affected individuals, including you, so that you may take further steps to best protect your personal information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

We regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause. As an added precaution, NWL is offering you access to <<CM Length>> months of free credit monitoring and identity protection services through CyberScout at no cost to you.

Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Information

Enroll in Credit Monitoring

We are providing you with access to these services at no charge: Single Bureau Monitoring, for <<CM Length>> months from the date of registration on Cyberscout HQ. You must authenticate your identity to begin receiving notifications and alerts related to your monitoring services. When changes occur to your Experian credit file, notification is sent to you the same day the change or update takes place with the bureau. In addition, we are providing you with proactive fraud assistance to help with any questions you might have. In the event you become a victim of fraud you will also have access remediation support from a Cyberscout Fraud Investigator. In order for you to receive the monitoring service described above, you must register and authenticate within 90 days from the date of this letter.

How do I enroll for the free services?

To enroll in Monitoring* services, please navigate to <https://www.dataeventmonitoring.com> and follow the instructions provided. When prompted, you are required to input the following Access Code to register on Cyberscout HQ:

<<Enrollment Code>>

Once registered on Cyberscout HQ, you must authenticate your identity to activate your services. Do this by selecting the Monitoring Services, "Use Now" link. Remember, in order for you to receive the monitoring services described above, you must register and authenticate within 90 days from the date of this letter.

Monitor Your Accounts

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and to monitor your credit reports for suspicious activity. Under U.S. law you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of your credit report.

You have the right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a security freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a security freeze, please contact the major consumer reporting agencies listed below:

Experian
PO Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013

To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below:

Re: Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<Name 1>>:

National Western Life Insurance Company (“NWL”) is writing to notify you of an incident that may have affected the security of your personal information. We want to provide you with information about the incident, our response, and steps you may take to better protect against possible misuse of your personal information, should you feel it necessary to do so. Please note that if you were already made aware of this event, the following information is supplemental and not notice of a new event.

What Happened? On August 15, 2020, NWL discovered a malware incident involving certain company systems. We immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party investigators, to determine the nature and scope of this event. The investigation confirmed that certain data had been accessed and/or acquired by an unauthorized actor as a result of this event from August 7, 2020 to August 10, 2020. You previously received written notice of this security incident on or about January 25, 2021. We are providing you with this additional notification because, after further investigation, we have determined that additional information relating to you may also have been affected.

What Information was Involved? The investigation determined that, in addition to the information about which you were previously notified, your name and <<Data Elements>> may have been accessed and/or acquired by an unauthorized individual.

What We Are Doing. NWL takes this incident and the security of personal information in our care very seriously. Upon learning of this incident, we moved quickly to investigate and respond to this incident, assess the security of our systems, restore functionality to our technology infrastructure and notify affected individuals. Our investigation into this incident has been ongoing and as noted above, we recently identified additional, affected individuals. As part of our ongoing commitment to the security of information, we notified federal law enforcement and are reviewing and enhancing systems security technology along with existing policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of a similar future event.

As a precautionary measure, we are notifying affected individuals, including you, so that you may take further steps to best protect your personal information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

We regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause. As an added precaution, NWL is offering you access to <<CM Length>> months of free credit monitoring and identity protection services through CyberScout at no cost to you.

What You Can Do. Please review the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Information, which contains information on what you can do to better protect against possible misuse of your information.
