Dear Sir:

Pursuant to N.H.R.S. § 359C:20(b), I am providing notice to you of a breach of security that may have affected two New Hampshire residents. Personal information of certain clients of Mt Rushmore Securities LLC, Mt Rushmore Management LLC, Mt Rushmore Investment Corp, MidAmerica Financial Services (“the Mt. Rushmore firms”) was made available through Google queries when confidential documents were inadvertently made accessible to Google’s web indexing software on an IT contractor’s server. The Mt. Rushmore firms worked with the IT contractor to ensure that the documents will no longer be accessible and Google tools were used to remove links to the documents. Credit monitoring services will be made available to the potentially affected clients, at no cost to them, as shown in the enclosed copy of the notice letter that will be sent the clients by email and first class mail on approximately February 19, 2013. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Very truly yours,

Dear [Name],

We discovered on February 2, 2013, that there was a data breach on our servers. Since that time, we have been diligently working with IT specialists and identity theft professionals to identify and contain potential exposure to our investors. As a precaution, we are concerned that investors' sensitive data may have been exposed to unauthorized third party users. Name, address, and, in some instances, other data were possibly disclosed.

We have taken the following steps to protect the data:

- 1- We had turned off the server and deleted copies of data.
- 2- We have reviewed existing security procedures and firewalls.
- 3- We have enlisted a security and encryption expert.
- 4- We have notified our administrator and banking custodians.
- 5- We have also engaged ID Experts®, a leading data breach and recovery services expert.

ID Experts (www.IDExpertsCorp.com) is an established firm engaged by Fortune 500 firms and leading securities firms. They will provide without cost to our investors identity theft protection services with their FraudStop™ Credit Edition with CyberScan™. Their proactive approach includes:

Recommended Steps to help Protect your Identity

Please Note: No one is allowed to place a fraud alert on your credit report except you. Please follow the instructions below to place the alert.

- 1. Website. Go to www.IDExpertsCorp.com/protect and follow the instructions for enrollment. Once you have completed your enrollment, you will receive a welcome letter by email (or by mail if you do not provide an email address when you sign up). The welcome letter will direct you to the exclusive ID Experts' Member Website where you will find other valuable educational information.
- 2. Activate the credit monitoring provided as part of your membership with ID Experts, which is paid for entirely by me. Credit and CyberScan monitoring is included in the membership, but you must personally activate it for it to be effective. Note: You must have established credit and access to a computer and the internet to use this service. If you need assistance, ID Experts will assist you.
- 3. Telephone. Contact ID Experts at [REDACTED] to gain additional information about this incident and speak with knowledgeable representatives about the appropriate steps to take to protect your credit identity.
- 4. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting companies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four months.

If you discover any suspicious items and have enrolled with ID Experts, notify them immediately by calling or by visiting their Member website and filing a theft report.

If you file a theft report with ID Experts, you will be contacted by a member of the Recovery Department who will help you determine the cause of the suspicious items. In the unlikely event that you fall victim to identity theft as a consequence of this incident, you will be assigned an ID Experts Recovery Advocate who will work on your behalf to identify, stop and reverse the damage quickly.

You should also know that you have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity fraud. Please note that in order to file a crime report or incident report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some kind of proof that you have been a victim. A police report is often required to dispute fraudulent items. You can report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

5. Place Fraud Alerts with the three credit bureaus. You can place a fraud alert at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three bureaus is as follows:

Credit Bureaus

Equifax Fraud Reporting
1-800-525-6285
P.O. Box 740241
Atlanta, GA 30374-0241
www.alerts.equifax.com

Experian Fraud Reporting
1-888-397-3742
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
www.experian.com

TransUnion Fraud Reporting
1-800-680-7289
Fraud Victim Assistance Division
P.O. Box 6790
Fullerton, CA 92834-6790
www.transunion.com

It is necessary to contact only ONE of these bureaus and use only ONE of these methods. As soon as one of the three bureaus confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place alerts on their records as well. You will receive confirmation letters in the mail and will then be able to order all three credit reports, free of charge, for your review.

6. Security Freeze. By placing a freeze, someone who fraudulently acquires your personal identifying information will not be able to use that information to open new accounts or borrow money in your name. You will need to contact the three national credit reporting bureaus listed above in writing to place the freeze. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze. The cost of placing the freeze varies by the state you live in and for each credit reporting agency. However, if you are a victim of identity theft and have filed a report with your local law enforcement agency or submitted an ID Theft Complaint Form with the Federal Trade Commission, there may be no charge to place the freeze.
