RE: Security Incident Notification

To Whom It May Concern:

I serve as counsel for the NetBrain Technologies, Inc. ("NetBrain"), and provide this notification to you of a recent data security incident suffered by the NetBrain. NetBrain recently learned of a potential compromise to an employee email account. NetBrain swiftly performed password resets on all accounts and engaged in a third-party forensics company to investigate. Following progress by experts in their thorough investigation, it was ultimately determined on June 22, 2020 that the limited employee email accounts experienced unauthorized access. Upon confirmation of the unauthorized access to certain NetBrain employee email accounts, NetBrain's third-party forensic experts immediately investigated whether the affected email accounts contained individuals' sensitive information. On July 24, 2020, NetBrain learned that the unauthorized access may have enabled access to individuals' personal information. NetBrain worked diligently to obtain sufficient contact information to provide notification and has learned that the potentially impacted data included information relating to five (5) New Hampshire residents.

NetBrain will be promptly notifying the affected individuals on October 2, 2020 and is providing them with complimentary credit monitoring for one (1) year. A copy of the drafted letter is attached. As the letter indicates NetBrain will be offering credit monitoring and identity restoration services at NetBrain's expense. NetBrain is taking steps to comply with all applicable notification obligations.

Please contact me should you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

CIPRIANI & WERNER, P.C.

RE: Important Security Notification. Please read this entire letter.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to inform you of a data security incident experienced by NetBrain Technologies, Inc. (“NetBrain”) that may have involved your personal information described below.

NetBrain takes the privacy and security of all information very seriously. While we have no evidence to suggest that any of the impacted information was viewed or misused during this compromise, it is crucial that we be as supportive and transparent as possible. That is why I am writing to inform you of this incident, to offer information about steps that can be taken to help protect your information, and to let you know about complimentary credit monitoring services that we are offering you through Equifax, one of the three nationwide credit reporting companies.

I sincerely apologize for any concern that this incident may cause you. Let me reassure you that NetBrain is fully committed to supporting you.

What Happened:

NetBrain recently learned of a potential compromise to an employee email account. NetBrain swiftly performed password resets on all accounts and engaged in a third-party forensics company to investigate. Following progress by experts in their thorough investigation, it was ultimately determined on June 22, 2020 that the limited employee email accounts experienced unauthorized access. Upon confirmation of the unauthorized access to certain NetBrain employee email accounts, NetBrain’s third-party forensic experts immediately investigated whether the affected email accounts contained individual’s sensitive information. On July 24, 2020, NetBrain learned that the unauthorized access may have enabled access to your personal information. We immediately began working to obtain sufficient contact information to provide you with this notification. This process took significant time to complete.

While we have no reason to believe that any information within the affected email accounts was actually viewed, collected or misused during this compromise, we are providing this notification to you out of an abundance of caution and so that you may diligently monitor your personal information and resources. We take great care in the security of our technology systems, and regret that this incident has occurred.

What Information Was Involved:

It is important to note, as mentioned above, that there is no evidence to suggest that any personally identifiable information has been viewed or misused. The personal information that could have been viewed by the unauthorized individual(s) may have included your name, in combination with: <<Breached Elements>>.

What We Are Doing:

NetBrain has taken every step necessary to address the incident and is committed to fully protecting all of the information that you have entrusted to us. Upon learning of this incident, we immediately performed a password reset to secure the NetBrain accounts and took steps to enhance the security of all information to help prevent similar incidents from occurring in the future. Additionally, we retained a third-party forensic firm to conduct a thorough investigation and are offering you complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services.

Credit Monitoring:

As a safeguard, we have arranged for you to enroll, at no cost to you, in an online credit monitoring service (Equifax® Credit Watch™ Gold with WebDetect) for one year provided by Equifax®, one of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. Due to privacy laws, we cannot register you directly. Additional information regarding how to enroll in the complimentary credit monitoring service is enclosed.

What You Can Do:

➤ PLACE A 1-YEAR FRAUD ALERT ON YOUR CREDIT FILE

An initial 1-year security alert indicates to anyone requesting your credit file that you suspect you are a victim of fraud. When you or someone else attempts to open a credit account in your name, increase the credit limit on an existing account, or obtain a new card on an existing account, the lender should take steps to verify that you have authorized the request when a fraud alert is active. If the creditor cannot verify this, the request should not be satisfied. You may contact one of the credit reporting companies below for assistance.

➤ PLACE A SECURITY FREEZE ON YOUR CREDIT FILE

If you are very concerned about becoming a victim of fraud or identity theft, a security freeze might be right for you. Placing a freeze on your credit report will prevent lenders and others from accessing your credit report in connection with any new credit application, which will prevent them from extending credit. A security freeze generally does not apply to circumstances in which you have an existing account relationship and a copy of your report is requested by your existing creditor or its agents or affiliates for certain types of account review, collection, fraud control or similar activities. With a security freeze in place, you will be required to take special steps when you wish to apply for any type of credit. This process is also completed through each of the credit reporting agencies. You should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a security freeze on your credit report. The process to place a security freeze requires that you directly contact each of the credit reporting companies. You can do so online or through the mail. The necessary types of information include your full name, social security number, date of birth, current address, all addresses where you have lived during the last two years, email address, a copy of a utility bill, bank or insurance statement and a copy of a government-issued id card, such as a driver's license or state id card.

➤ ORDER YOUR FREE ANNUAL CREDIT REPORTS

You can obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, directly from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies once every twelve (12) months. Visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Once you receive your credit reports, review them for discrepancies. Identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. Verify all information is correct. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting company.

➤ MANAGE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Take steps such as: carrying only essential documents with you; being aware of whom you are sharing your personal information with; and shredding receipts, statements, and other sensitive information. Remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports.

➤ USE TOOLS FROM CREDIT PROVIDERS

Carefully review your credit reports and bank, credit card and other account statements. Be proactive and create alerts on credit cards and bank accounts to notify you of activity. If you discover unauthorized or suspicious activity on your credit report or by any other means, file an identity theft report with your local police and contact a credit reporting company.

➤ BE AWARE OF SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY INVOLVING YOUR HEALTH INSURANCE

Contact your healthcare provider if bills do not arrive when expected, and review your Explanation of Benefits forms to check for irregularities or suspicious activity. You can also contact your health insurance company to notify them of possible medical identity theft or ask for a new account number.

➤ RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT (FCRA)

You have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in your credit file has been used against you, the right to know what is in your credit file, the right to ask for your credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act:

(i) the consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; (ii) the consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; (iii) access to your file is limited; (iv) you must give consent for credit reports to be provided to your employees; (v) you may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report; (vi) and you may seek damages from a violator. You may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage you to review your rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting https://files.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504_cfpb_summary_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

➤ OBTAIN MORE INFORMATION ABOUT IDENTITY THEFT AND WAYS TO PROTECT YOURSELF

You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, security freezes, and the steps you can take to protect yourself, by contacting the consumer reporting agencies, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. Additionally, any suspected identity theft should be reported to law enforcement, including your state Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission. Additional information is available at <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>. Under Rhode Island and Massachusetts law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident.
