Re: Supplemental Incident Notification

Dear Attorney General MacDonald:

We are writing on behalf of our client, Peabody Properties, Inc. ("Peabody"), to provide additional information regarding a phishing email incident that we reported to your office on August 5, 2020.

Since the initial notifications, Peabody's investigation identified 6 additional New Hampshire residents whose information was involved in the incident. Including the newly identified individuals, the total number of New Hampshire residents notified of this incident is 60. The individuals' information includes their names and one or more of the following data elements: Social Security number and financial account numbers. The investigation has concluded and all individuals have been notified.

Beginning October 21, 2020, Peabody is providing notice via United States Postal First Class Mail. A sample copy of the notification letter was previously submitted.¹ Peabody has offered the potentially affected New Hampshire residents a complimentary one-year membership in credit monitoring services through Experian®. Peabody has also established a dedicated call center for individuals to call with any questions they may have. To help ensure that a similar incident does not reoccur, Peabody has enhanced their existing email security protocols and is re-educating their staff for awareness on these types of incidents.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Sincerely,
