Re: Notice Concerning Consumer Information – N.H. Rev. Stat. § 359-C:20

New Jersey Division of State Police:

As required by the above statute, Signature Hardware, Inc. is providing notice about an incident involving the personal information associated with 33 New Hampshire residents (“Consumers”).

Signature Hardware, Inc., doing business at 2700 Crescent Springs Pike, Erlanger, KY 41017, conducts an on-line retail hardware business from its Website: signaturehardware.com (the “Online Store”).

Our Online Store utilizes an ecommerce platform to process consumer transaction information (“Third-Party Platform”). It recently came to our attention that a vulnerability in the Third-Party Platform enabled credit card numbers to be compromised when consumers transmitted the information to the Online Store while completing a transaction.

Based on the information known at this time, the perpetrator was only able to acquire Consumer credit card information (name, card number, expiration date and CVV) on a limited number of days, namely April 28-May 2, and for a few hours on each of these days: May 10, 22, 25, 27 and 30. Other information that is optional to provide at checkout, such as name and address, may also have been accessed, if such information was provided by the Consumer.

We believe that the vulnerabilities with respect to our Online Store have been remedied. We are working with cybersecurity consultants to aid in hardening our Online Store against further attacks. We have notified the credit card issuing/processing companies so that they can be on alert for suspicious activities. We are also notifying your state’s Consumers about this situation so that they can take appropriate measures to protect themselves. Notifications will be released to the Consumers in your state on or about June 5th, 2017.

A sample copy of our notification to Consumers is included under cover of this notice.

Our investigation of this incident is still underway. We have a third-party cybersecurity incident response team helping us review the incident further.

For additional information please contact me by telephone at 859-739-2166 or via email at Mark.Morse@SignatureHardware.com.

Sincerely,

Mark Morse

Notice of Data Breach

Dear Consumer Name:

We are writing to inform you that an unauthorized person may have accessed your credit card number, email address and any other information you entered during checkout on SignatureHardware.com (such as name and address).

What Happened?

On or around April 24, 2017, an unauthorized person gained access to the third-party platform we utilize to host our checkout process. Through this access, the unauthorized person loaded code onto our site that enabled them to access information provided by customers during checkout as it was entered. The unauthorized person is believed to have only obtained information on a limited number of days, namely April 28-May, and for a few hours on each of the following days: May 10, 22, 25, 27 and 30.

What Information Was Involved?

The information that may have been accessed includes any information entered during the Signature hardware checkout process, including credit card number, expiration date, and CVV number (the three or four digits on the back of your card). Other information that is optional to provide at checkout, such as name and address, may also have been accessed, if you provided such information during the check-out process.

What We Are Doing

After detecting unusual activity, we took immediate steps to identify and contain the intrusion. We took down our site temporarily to perform maintenance and address the issue. We are conducting an internal review of our systems to help further harden our defenses against similar attacks in the future.

What You Can Do

We recommend that you contact your credit or debit card company or bank to request a replacement card. We also recommend you take steps to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft, including regularly viewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports.

As an added precaution, we have arranged to have AllClear ID protect your identity for 12 months at no cost to you. The following identity protection services began on April 24, 2017 and you can use them at any time during the next 12 months.

TransUnion: P.O. Box 1000, Chester, PA 19022, 1-800-888-4213, www.transunion.com

When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you did not initiate or do not recognize. Look for information, such as home address and Social Security number, that is not accurate. If you see anything you do not understand, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

We recommend you remain vigilant with respect to reviewing your account statements and credit reports, and promptly report any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft to us and to the proper law enforcement authorities, including local law enforcement, your state's attorney general and/or the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You may contact the FTC or your state's regulatory authority to obtain additional information about avoiding identity theft.

You may want to order copies of your credit reports and check for any medical bills that you do not recognize. If you find anything suspicious, call the credit reporting agency at the phone number on the report. Keep a copy of this notice for your records in case of future problems with your medical records. If you are a California resident, we suggest that you visit the web site of the California Office of Privacy Protection at www.privacy.ca.gov to find more information about your medical privacy.

Fraud Alerts: There are also two types of fraud alerts that you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud: an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for at least 90 days. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by calling the toll-free fraud number of any of the three national credit reporting agencies listed below.

Equifax: 1-888-766-0008, www.equifax.com
Experian: 1-888-397-3742, www.experian.com
TransUnion: 1-800-680-7289, fraud.transunion.com

Credit Freezes (for Non-Massachusetts Residents): You may have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. In addition, you may incur fees to place, lift and/or remove a credit freeze. Credit freeze laws vary from state to state. The cost of placing, temporarily lifting, and removing a credit freeze also varies by state, generally $5 to $20 per action at each credit reporting company. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Since the instructions for how to establish a credit freeze differ from state to state, please contact the three major credit reporting companies as specified below to find out more information:

Equifax: P.O. Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com
Experian: P.O. Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
TransUnion LLC: P.O. Box 2000, Chester, PA, 19022-2000, freeze.transunion.com

You can obtain more information about fraud alerts and credit freezes by contacting the FTC or one of the national credit reporting agencies listed above.

Credit Freezes (for Massachusetts Residents): Massachusetts law gives you the right to place a security freeze on your consumer reports. A security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. Using a security freeze, however, may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may request that a freeze be placed on your credit report by sending a request to a credit reporting agency by certified mail, overnight mail or regular stamped mail to the address below:

Equifax: P.O. Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com
TransUnion LLC: P.O. Box 2000, Chester, PA, 19022-2000, freeze.transunion.com

Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. The following information should be included when requesting a security freeze (documentation for you and your spouse must be submitted when freezing a spouse's credit report): full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; Social Security number; date of birth (month, day and year); current address and previous addresses for the past five (5) years; and applicable fee (if any) or incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Department of Motor Vehicles. The request should also include a copy of a government-issued identification card, such as a driver's license, state or military ID card, and a copy of a utility bill, bank or insurance statement. Each copy should be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue (statement dates must be recent). The credit reporting company may charge a reasonable fee of up to $5 to place a freeze or lift or remove a freeze, unless you are a victim of identity theft or the spouse of a victim of identity theft, and have submitted a valid police report relating to the identity theft to the credit reporting company.
