Re: Supplemental Notice of Data Event

To Whom It May Concern:

We continue to represent the St. Lucie County Tax Collector's Office ("SLCTC") located at 2300 Virginia Avenue, Fort Pierce, FL 34982 and write to supplement our December 28, 2023 notice to your Office ("December Notice"). The December Notice is attached hereto for reference as Exhibit AA. This notice may be further supplemented if significant new facts are learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this supplemental notice, SLCTC does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of the New Hampshire law, the applicability of the New Hampshire data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

SLCTC continued to investigate and review the data determined to be at risk as a result of the event since providing the December Notice. During this review, SLCTC determined additional individuals could be impacted. Accordingly, on April 10, 2024, SLCTC mailed written notice of this incident to an additional six (6) New Hampshire residents, bringing the total number of affected individuals in this state to twenty-one (21). The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes . Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit BB. SLCTC did not have contact information for all potentially impacted individuals therefore it also provided substitute notice by posting a notice of the event on its website on February 21, 2024 and publishing a media notice on February 28, 2024.

SLCTC is providing individuals who had Social Security numbers potentially affected with access to credit monitoring services for through TransUnion at no cost to the individuals.

Re: Notice of Data Event

To Whom It May Concern:

We represent the St. Lucie County Tax Collector's Office ("SLCTC") located at 10264 SW Village Parkway Port St. Lucie, FL 34987, and are writing to notify your office of an incident that may affect the security of certain personal information relating to fifteen (15) New Hampshire residents. This notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, SLCTC does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of New Hampshire law, the applicability of the New Hampshire data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On October 27, 2023, SLCTC became aware of unusual activity on its network. SLCTC immediately took steps to secure its systems and initiated an investigation into the nature and scope of the activity with the assistance of third-party forensic specialists. The investigation determined that the SLCTC network was subject to unauthorized access between October 16, 2023 and October 27, 2023, and that certain files were acquired by an unknown actor while on the network. In response, SLCTC undertook a comprehensive review of the files determined to be at risk to assess what information was stored therein and to whom that information pertained. On November 28, 2023, SLCTC completed this review and determined that information related to certain New Hampshire residents could be impacted. The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes

Notice to New Hampshire Residents

On December 28, 2023, SLCTC mailed written notice of this incident to fifteen (15) New Hampshire residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A. SLCTC is continuing to review the data determined to be at risk and will supplement this notice if additional residents are affected.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, SLCTC moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of its systems, and identify potentially affected individuals. Further, SLCTC notified state and federal law enforcement of the event. SLCTC also implemented additional safeguards related to data privacy and security.

SLCTC is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud, including advising individuals to report any suspected incidents of identity theft or fraud to their credit card company and/or bank. SLCTC is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, information on protecting against tax fraud, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud. SLCTC is also notifying regulators as necessary.

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For District of Columbia residents, the District of Columbia Attorney General may be contacted at: 400 6th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001; (202) 442-9828; and oag.dc.gov.

For New Mexico residents, consumers have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in their credit file has been used against them, the right to know what is in their credit file, the right to ask for their credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to consumers' files is limited; consumers must give consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; consumers may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance based on information in their credit report; and consumers may seek damages from violators. Consumers may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage consumers to review their rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting www.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504\_cfpb\_summary\_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.
