Re: Data Breach Notification

Dear Sir:

TD Bank, N.A. is notifying your office of a privacy event impacting a New Hampshire resident. Our investigation identified one of our customers who is a resident of New Hampshire and may have been affected by this incident.

We recently learned that an employee made unauthorized withdrawals from customer accounts and obtained some customer personal information. The personal information which was exposed may have included name, address, and debit card number. This is an isolated incident that is being addressed through an internal investigation by our corporate security team.

We have notified our affected customers in writing. In addition, we have corrected the customer's account balance and have offered to transfer the funds in their affected accounts to a new account free of charge. We will also be offering two years of free credit monitoring. A copy of our customer notification letter is enclosed for your reference.

If you need any further information, please contact: N. Patrice Brusko, Director, Chief Privacy Officer, TD Bank, N.A., 9000 Atrium Way, Mount Laurel, NJ 08054 or Patrice.brusko@td.com.

Sincerely,

N. Patrice Brusko
Director, Chief Privacy Officer

Dear (Customer Name),

We value your privacy and make every effort to keep your personal information safe. Unfortunately, we're writing today to let you know about a recent incident regarding your personal information.

We recently experienced a privacy issue but we're making things right.

We recently learned that between February 2nd and February 13th 2019, one of our employees improperly accessed some of your personal information. The personal information they accessed may have included your name, address, social security number, date of birth, account number, and transactional information.

We realize this is not news you want to hear, and we're truly sorry. Safeguarding your personal information is something we take very seriously. At this time, there is no evidence your data has been misused. This is an isolated incident and we're taking action to better protect your confidentiality in the future.

To further protect your information, we're also:

- Offering free credit monitoring service for 24 months at our expense.
We're paying for you to take advantage of a complimentary two-year membership to Fraud-Defender, provided by Merchants Information Solutions. This best-in-class service helps detect misuse of your personal information. It also provides you with identity research and resolution services to protect your identity should you suspect a problem for any reason. Details are included on the next page.
- Making it easy and free to transfer funds to a new account with us.
If you want added protection for your money at TD Bank and would like to close your existing account(s) and open new account(s), we'll make it as simple as possible. Please contact us and we'll cover all expenses associated with this process.

Here's what you can do to protect yourself from identity theft and fraud:

- Remain vigilant about your personal information and review your monthly account statements.
- Establish a password on your account(s).
- Notify us immediately of any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft.
- Report any suspicious or unauthorized activity to law enforcement and to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) at 1-877-FTC-HELP (1-877-382-4357).
- Carefully monitor your credit report. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months.
- Place a free fraud alert on your credit file, which tells creditors to contact you before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts – and alerts them of possible fraudulent activity. Fraud alerts last 90 days unless you manually renew them or use an automatic fraud alert feature. You can contact the credit reporting agencies directly at:

Equifax: 1-800-525-6285; Experian: 1-888-397-3742; TransUnion Corp: 1-800-888-4213

Additional information about credit reports and ways to prevent identity theft and fraud is available through the FTC at <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/features/feature-0014-identity-theft>, by visiting annualcreditreport.com, or by calling 1-877-322-8228.

We're here for you.

If you have any questions, please call me at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX. You're also welcome to contact our fraud unit at 1-800-893-8554. Again, we apologize for any concern or inconvenience this may cause. We're committed to delivering a legendary Customer experience and truly appreciate the opportunity to regain your trust. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Sincerely,
