Re: Data Breach Notice

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are writing to inform your office of a recent data security breach at our client, Williams-Sonoma, Inc ("WSI").

WSI determined that when certain customers called their call center to make a purchase with one of their brands, in addition to requesting their credit card number and expiration date, an associate improperly asked customers for their CVV number on the credit card. This incident affected one resident in New Hampshire. WSI sent notification to this customer on July 31, 2018.

To address this breach, WSI filed a police report and is pursuing prosecution against the associate in question in this matter. The associate has been terminated from employment with WSI.

Please contact me directly should you have any questions or require any additional information.

Very truly yours,
