Re: Notification of Security Incident

Dear Attorney General MacDonald:

We are writing to inform you that our client, Zoetop Business Co. Ltd., which operates the ecommerce website www.romwe.com (“ROMWE”), is notifying approximately 29,914 individuals who reside in New Hampshire of a data security incident that may have impacted some of their personal information.

On September 7, 2020, ROMWE discovered that some customer usernames and passwords found on the dark web may have been stolen from its computer network in July 2018, as determined by internal and forensic investigations. These usernames and passwords, if used, could have provided access to customer account information, including name, email, and phone number, or other optional information the customers may have stored. Credit card information was redacted and not at risk.

Over the past several years, ROMWE has continued to improve its security protections as part of its regular security program activities, including by increasing password encryption and using more advanced intrusion detection technologies. For the present matter, we have also forced password resets for all potentially affected customers.

ROMWE is providing notice on December 30, 2020. An example of the notification is attached. The three Credit Reporting Agencies are also being notified.

For potentially affected customers, ROMWE is offering, at no cost, identity theft protection services through IDX, the data breach and recovery services expert. Information regarding these services, as well as additional information to assist those individuals, is included in the notification sent to the individuals.

We take your privacy and online security very seriously, and we sincerely apologize for any concern this incident may cause. This letter contains information about what happened, actions we have taken to prevent a recurrence, and steps you can take to protect your information.

What Happened?

Recently, ROMWE became aware of customer information posted on the "dark web." Immediately, we retained a cyber security company and conducted an investigation to determine what happened.

What Information Was Involved?

On September 7, 2020, we discovered that some ROMWE customers' usernames and passwords found on the dark web may have been stolen from our computer network in July 2018, as determined by internal and external forensic investigations. These usernames and passwords, if used, could have provided access to your ROMWE account information, including name, email, and phone number, or other optional information you may have stored. If you stored your credit card information in your account, it remains secure since we do not keep your full credit card information.

What Are We Doing

Over the past several years, ROMWE has continued to improve its security protections as part of its regular security program activities, including by increasing password encryption and using more advanced intrusion detection technologies. For the present matter, we have also forced password resets for all potentially affected customers. In an abundance of caution, we are offering to potentially affected customers identity theft protection services through IDX, the data breach and recovery services expert. IDX identity protection services include 12 months of CyberScan (dark web) monitoring, a $1,000,000 insurance reimbursement policy, and fully managed ID theft recovery services. For residents of all states:

It is recommended that you remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing payment card account statements and monitoring your credit reports for unauthorized activity. You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, whether or not you suspect any unauthorized activity on your account. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com, or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228. You can also order your annual free credit report by mailing a completed Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0155-free-credit-reports>) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. Initial fraud alerts last for one year. Victims of identity theft can also get an extended fraud alert for seven years. The phone numbers for all three credit bureaus are at the bottom of this page.

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant and monitor your accounts for suspicious or unusual activity.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency by certified mail, overnight mail, regular stamped mail, or by following the instructions found at the websites listed below. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze for yourself or your spouse or a minor under 16: (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; (5) Proof of current address, such as current utility or telephone bill, bank or insurance statement; (6) legible photocopy of government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and (7) if you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. It is free to place, lift, or remove a security freeze.
